FROM YOUR EDITOR. . . .

We received some new memberships and renewals too late to be included in this issue; look for them in July. The deadline for material for the July issue is JUNE 15! Please send news clippings and articles directly to the editor before then.

Note the Reunion schedule on page 45, and then do send in your pre-registration. I'd suggest that you photocopy the registration blank in order to preserve your Newsletter-- or copy the reunion plans before sending the form, so you'll have the schedule. I hope that many of you are planning to attend the Mayflower Congress which follows; contact your state Governor to see if you can be a delegate. It is important to have a large SOULE representation there.

President's Corner...

Dear Cousins,

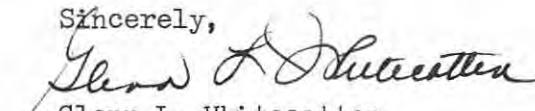

Recently, the ADDENDUM TO MAYFLOWER VOLUME III, was completed and distributed (initially as an "in house" publication) to the Governors and Historians of the various states.

As you are well aware, there are differing opinions regarding whether or not some of the information in MF3 is erroneous. Governor General Dwight Twist appointed a Genealogical Review Panel, chaired by Past Governor General, Dr. Lee D. van Antwerp, to judge the material presented for inclusion in the addendum. Soule Family Historian, Dr. Milton E. Terry and the Editor of Volume III, Miss Anne Borden Harding, were reluctant to do so because both feared that their contributions might not receive the same consideration as those of their critics. Dr. Twist has stated that in his view, the proposed changes in the MF3 addendum could be presented to Dr. Terry and Miss Harding for critical review prior to the time that it was to go to the jury. Dr. Terry has informed me that that was not done. Dr. Terry further stated that to his knowledge, no jury member attempted to contact him regarding either his views or to obtain information from his files of either a supporting or nonsupporting nature. To date, I am unaware of any written statement from any of the panel members regarding their findings. One wonders if they served merely as unquestioning editors, or did they indeed question any of the material presented to them? It would be gratifying to know that a "rubber stamp" was not routinely and regularly applied to each page of the addendum.

Much has been said of the need for facts in genealogical research. Indeed, we all wish for information with attendant proofs. Oftentimes the proof seems to have vanished. Thus reputable genealogists not infrequently attempt to reconstruct situations knowing some of the facts, but not necessarily all of them. Among the sciences, archaeology, paleontology, and anthropology are disciplines that frequently effectively use deductive reasoning. Educated guesses and suppositions should not necessarily be disdained. Mr. Thompson and Mr. Anderson have written much of the need for proof. Yet to refute Dr. Terry and Miss Harding's position, they, too, have used supposition. If they can use the educated guess in their arguments, why then do they insist that we not have the same privilege? Frankly, in my opinion, it comes down to the denominator of just who is holding the reins of the horse.

Dr. Terry is now in possession of an Addendum to MF3. Work is well under way on a rebuttal, and he is hopeful that it will be largely completed and ready for our inspection by the time of our September reunion in Plymouth. At that time, the Kindred may wish to discuss whether or not we should proceed to publish an addendum of our own following critical review by a panel of review.

Sincerely,

Glenn L. Whitecotten
President, Soule Kindred

IN MEMORIAM

KENNETH C. TIFFIN

Obituaries

KENNETH TIFFIN

Kenneth C. Tiffin of Holliston, a Boston attorney for 60 years, died Jan. 5 in Morton Plant Hospital, Clearwater, FL. He was 84.

Mr. Tiffin was born in Keene, NH. He graduated from Boston University Law School and was admitted to the bar in 1922. After graduating from law school he formed the firm of Shorey, Tiffin and Rhodes. His present firm, a continuation of that group, is one of the older firms in the City of Boston, having been in continuous existence for over 50 years.

Mr. Tiffin was regarded as one of the elder deans of the legal profession in Boston, an associate said.

A former resident of West Newton, he served on the Board of Aldermen there from 1936 until 1939. At the time of his death, he was active in the Second Church of Newton.

He and his wife, Celia (Hopkins), for many years raised great dane dogs, and he was active in many organizations involved in raising pure-bred dogs. He was secretary to the Eastern Dog Club and was a licensed judge for the American Kennel Club. He traveled widely in the U.S. and abroad to judge dog shows.

He was a member of the New England Historical and Genealogical Society and the Mayflower Society. He was president of the Alden Kindred, a genealogical society whose national headquarters are on Alden St., Duxbury, and was counsel general of the National Huguenot Society.

Mr. Tiffin was a 32d degree Mason, active in Alepo Temple, Boston, and was a member of the Belleview Biltmore Country Club, Clearwater, FL.

Besides his wife and son, Jay, of Belleair, FL, he leaves another son, James B. Tiffin of Hingham, and 7 grandchildren.

Kenneth C. Tiffin was Soule Kindred President from 1973 to 1976, and a board member and Counsellor since. His Soule lineage: Kenneth Claude⁹ Tiffin¹, Grace E. Lesure⁸, Marinda⁷ Mosher⁶, Azro⁶ Loudon Mosher⁸, Daniel Mosher⁵, Pardon⁴ Mosher⁵, Nicholas Mosher⁵, Hannah Devol⁴, Mary Soule⁵, George⁵, George.

TRIBUTE FROM SHIRLEY SOULE SMITH, LONG-TIME KINDRED MEMBER AND OFFICER

One day just before one of our reunions in Plymouth, I received a brief note, dashed off by Kenneth Tiffin from his law office in Boston, inquiring about Soule Kindred.

That was a good day for Soule Kindred in America. Mr. Tiffin attended that reunion, and from that time on we benefitted by his knowledge, his enthusiasm and his energy. He and Mrs. Tiffin were cordial hosts at their beautiful home in Holliston, Massachusetts at informal conferences about Soule Kindred affairs; his legal experience and fund of practical knowledge was of invaluable assistance in forming our By-laws; it was he who arranged for us to meet and eat at the Alden House during our Plymouth reunions.

We remember both the Tiffins-- Ken and Celia-- at our reunions. They were always lively, interested in all the proceedings, smiling and quick with a quip as they greeted everyone. We are sad with Mrs. Tiffin in the loss of his devoted companionship, and grateful that Soule Kindred had Kenneth Tiffin's friendship for so long.

FAMILY HISTORIAN'S REPORT

NEW INFORMATION FOR MAYFLOWER FAMILIES, V.3

P. 188 #417 ASENATH CUSHMAN (Alathea-4 Soule, Joseph-3, John-2, George-1) m. JOSEPH DOWNER

The following information was contributed by Kindred Member Bertram Taft Smith (BTS), 821 Meade Drive, Greensboro, NC 27410. He writes that the material was found in a visit to the Thetford Historical Society in Thetford, VT. Because of time limitations he did not copy all the information in the DOWNER file.

We list the children of Joseph and As(c)enath Cushman Downer according to the notes of Mary B. Slade (MBS) of Thetford, Vermont, who did a lifetime of research for a history of Thetford that she never got around to writing. Her notes are on file in the Thetford Historical Society quarters adjoining the library in Thetford Hill, Vt. (This information has not been verified in Vermont Vital Records; further information will be welcome.) Children who were NOT listed in MF-3 are noted with an asterisk.

Additional information in the Thetford files includes a listing of the children of Cushman, Gardner, and Deborah.

FOLLOW-UP: DIARY OF MELVINA SOULE

Mrs. Aaron was intrigued by an item in her great-grandmother Melvina Soule's diary (published in Soule Kindred Newsletter, V. 17, No. 4, Oct. 1983) that told about being interviewed by a newspaper reporter in Lancaster, PA, as they made their journey to the Centennial Exposition in Philadelphia in 1876. She was able to obtain a copy of the article which appeared in the LANCASTER INTELLIGENCER, June 26, 1876, and we reproduce it here as an interesting sidelight to the published diary.

↙ MORE PILGRIMS TO THE CENTENNIAL. ↘

On Saturday afternoon last there appeared upon our streets two long black curtained wagons, filled with rather worn looking passengers and gipsy-like baggage. While halted on East King street, the party was interviewed by a representative of the INTELLIGENCER who wanted to know who they were, where they came from to what place they were going. He was informed that the party consisted of Sullivan Soule and family, of Stoutington, Wisconsin, which place they left six weeks ago, in the wagons in which they are now traveling, and that they are going first to the Centennial exposition where they will remain for a few weeks and then proceed in their wagons to Augusta, Maine, near which city Mr. Soule was born. Thirty years ago Mr. Soule went west and has resided there ever since, and this year, being the Centennial of American Independence, he concluded to celebrate it by coming east. On being asked whether he could not have brought his family east much more cheaply by rail, he replied that he did not know, but that he preferred this way as it gave him and his wife and children a good opportunity of seeing the country, and of showing the young people what an immense country ours is. The party crossed the Ohio river at Steubenville, and came thence via Pittsburgh and Huntingdon. They describe the road over the Alleghenies as being very rough and in many places almost impassable. The names of the pilgrims are Sullivan Soule and his wife Esther, aged about 65 years; his son Franklin and wife Melvina, aged about 25; his daughter Henrietta, aged about 22; three small grandchildren, Francis Conner, Sullivan Conner and Temperance Louis Conner; and a Norwegian boy raised by Mrs. Soule, named Jacob Oleson. They expect to reach Philadelphia tomorrow or next day.

SOULE KINDRED NEWS

CLYDE AND ANNIE SOULE, GUELPH, ONTARIO, JANUARY 26, 1984

Clyde M. Soule, Guelph, Ontario celebrated his 90th birthday on January 26, 1984 with his wife, Annie, family and relatives. Friends have dropped in to express their best wishes and many cards and letters have been received. The Federal Member of Parliament representing Guelph and area came to visit Clyde bringing a plaque with congratulations and best wishes from the Prime Minister of Canada, Mr. Trudeau. The Governor General of Canada also sent his congratulations in the form of a scroll. Congratulations were also received from the Premier of Ontario and a plate from the City of Guelph delivered by the Mayor of Guelph.

Clyde Soule was born to Fred and Flora Soule in 1894 at Union City, PA. He left Jamestown, PA in 1914 with his father, mother & sisters to farm in the North Battleford area of Saskatchewan in Western Canada.

In 1920, Clyde took a poultry course at the University in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan and was hired by the Poultry Dept. of the University as a fieldman. He worked for the Dept. for 20 years from October to March each year travelling about the province of Saskatchewan, but continuing to farm during the summer months.

Clyde married Annie Barlow in 1922. They farmed on the family homestead, when Clyde's parents decided to return to Warren, PA. Clyde and Annie lived in Saskatoon for 5 years, then returned to their own farm next to the family homestead. Clyde was director of the local Agricultural Society and a trustee of the local public school board for many years. Clyde and Annie have four children, Eleanor, Wayne, Marc and George. They have 10 grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

In 1940 Clyde, Annie and family moved to Guelph, Ontario where Clyde felt there were good educational facilities for the children and more opportunities for work. Clyde worked as gardener for four years. In 1944 he wrote a civil service exam for a position as a Federal poultry fieldman and hatchery inspector and was hired by the Federal Dept. of Agriculture. He continued with this work for 20 years.

Clyde has been active with the Guelph Horticultural Society for many years since his retirement. He has had several positions on the executive committee and is now a past director. He has received many awards in horticulture and was nominated a "Citizen of the Year" award in Guelph for his outstanding service in horticulture.

A family dinner was held recently for Annie Soule on the occasion of her 80th birthday on Feb. 12, 1984. She received many cards and notes from her friends and beautiful flowers from the family. In case some of the Soule Kindred readers wish to write to my father & mother to wish them well, their address is:

I am not renewing my subscription to the Soule Kindred for the following reasons----

I am now 89 yrs. old, and the ones I knew so well have passed on or in some nursing home.

I fell and broke my hip one yr. ago and was in Providence Hosp. for several weeks. Can walk all over this big house but when I walk any distance I have to take my walker. It is very difficult for me to ride any distance at all.

My granddaughter is an artist, and I have a beautiful painting of the old home of Susanna Soule (which is no longer there now) which her father built for her in Duxbury, Mass.....

(Ed: Let's shower Mrs. Jarke with cards to show her that her Kindred care.)

MARY JOSEPHINE THOMAS CRISHORE

Soule Kindred Newsletter Indexer

Mary Josephine (Thomas) Crismore, 11th generation Soule, was born April 11, 1908, at Otterbein, Indiana to Sanford Elvin and Mahalia Josephine (Orr) Thomas. Sanford Thomas was a school teacher and railroad ticket agent and telegraph operator. Mahalia Josephine (Josie) Orr was the daughter of Thomas Orr, a Civil War veteran, and Ann Maria (Drake) Orr, a school teacher. Ann Maria Drake's genealogy takes her family through the Drake, Walker, and Soule lineage.

On April 24, 1924, I graduated from High School at Stinesville, Indiana at the age of 16 years and 13 days.

On November 26, 1931, I was married to Frank A. Crismore from the same community. We have two sons, Elvin and John Crismore, both Life Members of Indiana Society of Mayflower Descendants. We have six grandchildren.

During World War II, I was employed by General Motors Company for two years. At the end of the War, I stayed home with the children until they were ready for College.

Then I again became employed away from home. I worked for twenty years at the Indiana University Medical Center, now known as IUPUI, Indiana University Purdue University Indianapolis, an extension college for Indiana and Purdue Universities at Indianapolis. There I held the position of Chief Clerk of the Maintenance Department, Physical Plant Department, for fifteen years. I finished from there to Retirement in the Insurance Department of the Personnel Division, as Insurance Office Manager.

After retirement I devoted most of my time to genealogy. I have taught classes of genealogy, have been a speaker for clubs, DAR, Mayflower Societies, Magna Charta Dames meetings, and church groups.

I am a member of Clayton Chapter Order of the Eastern Star, a past Worthy Matron and a past president of District #10 of O.E.S.

I became a Life Member of the Indiana Society of Mayflower Descendants in 1968. Since that time I have been Governor of Indiana Society three years, Deputy Governor General for three years, State Historian for eight years. During that eight year period we had almost 300 new memberships with no rejections of all the papers sent through. I have attended the General Meetings, one in Denver, CO; one in Berkeley, CA; one in Indianapolis, which was hosted by Indiana during my term of Governor; and five in Plymouth. In 1977 I was the Chairman of a Committee to publish the lineages of Indiana memberships. I typed and indexed this book ready to print. We sold nearly 400 books.

I am a Charter member of Indiana Division of Magna Charta Dames and at present am the State Regent.

I am a member of Caroline Scott Harrison Chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution. I was the Genealogical Chairman for eight years, then retired to Vice Chairman. During the eight year period this committee gathered the genealogical records of members and published into 100-200 page books. There were eleven of these books which I typed and indexed, placed in National DAR Library, Indiana State Library and the home Chapter House. I served for twelve years on the Membership Committee helping prospective members with their lineages for membership into DAR.

I am a member of the "Hoosier Ancestors", an Indiana Society, with seven proven lines to ancestors coming to Indiana before the year 1816.

I am a member of the National Organization of the Plantagenet Society, proving my lineage back to King Edward III.

I am a member of the Daughters of the Founders and Patriots of America, a National Society that has both a Founder and Patriot by a same last name up to and including oneself. My father's Thomas line was proven to Founders William ap Thomas and son Robert Thomas and to two Patriots of the Revolutionary War, Captain Robert Thomas and his son Lieut. William Thomas. I am Lineage Book Chairman; the Society publishes a book every 500 new memberships. Before I can type and index this book I have to research each and every date to see that birth, marriage and death dates are right. Sometimes errors are found which must be corrected before the book goes to press. My genealogy training and research work allows me to see these errors.

I am a member of Saint Andrew Presbyterian Church, Indianapolis. I taught Sunday School many years. I gathered the 25 year History of the Church and typed that book ready for print.

I researched and typed a book for my Thomas family. The "Robert and Anne (Moore) Thomas Family History", a book of over 1900 descendants from the Thomas family 1757-1968. Published over 400 copies and distributed them to family members, many libraries and copyrighted in the Library of Congress. There is a copy in the Mayflower Society Library in Plymouth. Later I wrote and published another 100 pages of the history of the 1635-1757 time era, adding five more generations.

I wrote and researched the history of the "Crismore Family" also. It was distributed to the Library of Congress, some State Libraries, and family members.

I wrote and did the research for my lineage to the noted Edward Fitz Randolph family to fourteen Barons and King Edward III, my first lineage to Magna Charta Dames on my mother's lineage. Then I proved the Drake lineage of my grandmother also to MCD Society. Then later proved a Clayton lineage to my father's lineage. I have shorter manuscripts of some twenty other ancestors into proven lines.

I was Editor of "Soule Newsletter" for eight years, have served three years on the Soule Kindred Board, and am now the Indexer of the Soule Newsletter. I write articles for the Newsletter from time to time. I still assist people in finding their lineages to Soule ancestors. These problems I help with are from all over the United States.

I am deeply involved with the SOULE-WALKER controversy. This is still an active program.

Lineage is George Soule-1, Elizabeth Soule Walker-2, Francis Walker-3, Ann Walker Drake-4, John Drake-5, Oliver Drake-6, David Drake-7, Osmer Drake-8, Ann Maria Drake Orr-9, Mahalia Josephine Orr Thomas-10, Mary Josephine Thomas Crismore-11

Mrs. R. H. Chace has donated to the Soule Kindred library a copy of a book which she compiled: GEORGE SOULE, PILGRIM, AND ONE LINE OF HIS DESCENDENTS THROUGH 12 GENERATIONS. This is a charming book written for her 7 grandchildren, who are 13th generation descendants of George Soule. The lineage is: George-1, Susannah Soule West-2, Francis West, Jr.-3, John West-4, William West-5, Olive West Angell-6, Amey Angell Mathewson-7, Thomas Angell Mathewson-8, Vella Mathewson Hood-9, Amey Hood Chace-10, Raymond Hood Chace-11, and Nathan, Thomas and Priscilla Chace-12. Written for school-age children, the book is well-researched and documented. Many of the original early documents have been reproduced, as well as photographs of homes and ancestors. The story is interesting reading-- such more than the "bare bones" of vital statistics. Mrs. Chace very clearly labels what is speculation, and gives reasons for her conclusions. Your editor recommends this book as a model for anyone to use in writing a genealogy for posterity. If you'd like to purchase a copy at cost ($26.00 for hard cover, $15.00 for soft cover), send your order to Mrs. R. H. Chace, 44 Whipple Avenue, Riverside, RI, 02915.

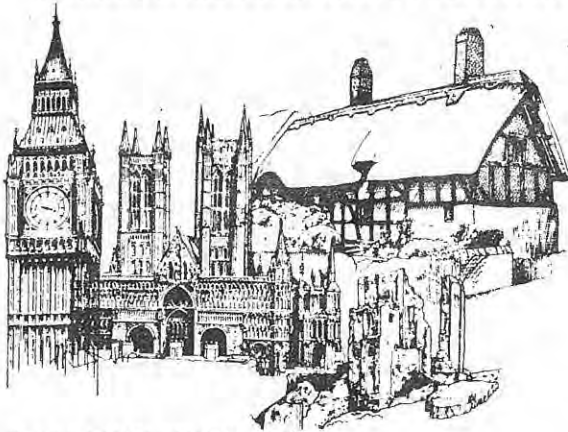

RECORDING FAMILY DATA

Have you been filling out the family data forms? Soule Kindred needs information, especially on families since 1850. We'd like to suggest that you begin with your 6th generation ancestor and fill out a sheet for each one of your ancestors down to yourself. This is especially important if you descend through a female line; Soule women who marry tend to become lost Soules.

Directions for recording data on the form were printed in V. 16, No. 4, October, 1982 Newsletter. Most of it is easy to follow. It is VERY important to list sources of data; if the information comes from a family Bible or other record, a photocopy of the information should be included. Send completed forms to our Historian:

TRIP TO ENGLAND

Jim Bolles, Director of FAMILY SOCIETY TOURS, has been in touch with Soule Kindred Historian and Editor. He will be conducting family tours to Britain this spring, and while there, is planning to look over some of the areas that might interest Soule Kindred in a 1985 tour. He will prepare a tentative outline for a Kindred tour, and have some slides available for showing at our September reunion.

FAMILY SOCIETY TOURS

24 Murray Street, Norwalk, Connecticut 06851

A minimum number of 10 individuals is required for a Family Tour.

A Kindred trip to London, Eckington (George Soule's possible birthplace), Stratford, and Plymouth with visits to Oxford, Bath, and Stonehenge sounds exciting. Do consider the possibility of a vacation to England in the spring of 1985, and start planning now.

THE STORY OF GEORGE SOULE
by Mrs. Edwin S. Harris

(Mrs. Harris (Betty) is a former president of Soule Kindred, from 1976-1978. She also was the hostess for the Kindred Reunion in San Antonio in 1973. Earlier installments of Mrs. Harris' story appeared in the Newsletter in January 1981, April 1982, July 1982, and July 1983, and will continue through 1984.)

LEAVING WORCESTERSHIRE

At some point George left his home place to join the other passengers who were to sail on the MAYFLOWER. It isn't likely that he would have made the journey alone, partly because of the danger of becoming lost away from a town at night, or that he might become waylaid by brigands. There was much robbery at the time. Even gentlemen indulged in thievery on occasion. He may have accompanied Edward Winslow's younger brother, Gilbert, to the ship, or at least to London. Gilbert was the first of Edward's brothers to come to the New World. The remaining brothers arrived by later ships. How they traveled, whether by foot or on horseback, is not certain but it surely had to be one or the other for there were no other means out in the country.

One wonders how the young George felt on leaving his hearth and home. The pleasant village would have been an endearing place. Eckington was not too different in George's youth than it had been 600 years before, when it was described by the chronicler, William Malmsbury:

"A land rich in grain, productive of fruit in some parts by art of cultivation, enticing the lazy to work by the prospect of a hundredfold return. You can see the highway clothed with trees that produce apples, not by the grafters hand, but by the nature of the ground itself. For the earth of it's own accord rears them up to fruit with excellent flavor and appearance. Many do not wither for a year, nor before new crops are produced to take their place."

Today's guidebook of Worcestershire notes that the production of fruit still remains the impression of those who know the southern part of the county today. Of course many parts of the shire have suffered much from the inroads of industry.

The Malvern Hills can be seen from the town. It was, if you recall English Literature, that, "On a May morning on Malvern Hills", the Medieval poet, Langland, had his VISION OF PIERS PLOWMAN.

The Avon River winds west from Shakespeare's home at Stratford on Avon situated in the adjoining county. It passes nearby Eckington and Evesham on it's way to meet the Severn. Evesham was an ancient place even when George knew it. He must have heard tales of it's architectural glory before the Dissolution of the Monasteries from his elders. That terror had come in the decades before he was born. There was almost total destruction of all religious buildings in Evesham, but the lovely Tower of Pershore Abbey, just over the way from Eckington was only partly destroyed. It was to be used in the "new scheme" It was near his home. George would have walked and sat about the ruins many times and pondered their past grandeur and beauty.

It is interesting to learn how early the county of Worcestershire became Christian. It became, in the Middle Ages, a great ecclesiastical center. In the seventh century the see of Worcester was established, with its jurisdiction corresponding closely to the area of the area of the county.

The ford across the Severn at Worcester was the chief highway for Christian missionaries penetrating into heathen Wales. There followed a succession of Saxon Bishops, and Bishop Oswald in the ninth century founded the first large Benedictine Monastery in England.

It was the first of many monastic establishments which left their mark on the shire. The Benedictines came to Pershore, Evesham and Malvern. The Franciscans and Dominicans came to the city of Worcester itself. The Cluniacs came to Dudley and later the Austin Friars came to Droitwich.

It came about that at the end of the Middle Ages, Worcestershire was perhaps the greatest stronghold of monasticism in the country. It follows that the suppression of the monasteries caused a great upheaval in land ownership, and the new merchant class that was then coming into power reaped the benefit. Robert Sole, wealthy salter of London, who came from Ecking ton, must have taken advantage of the time. It also followed that Worcestershire was strong for the Catholic faith. How these circumstances and background would have affected George's family are not hard to imagine.

Referring to the ruins of nearby Pershore Abbey of George's memory, Leatherbarrow writes in a 1974 guidebook how it stands today:

"A wide expanse of greensward leads to the west door between two modern (1847) buttresses. Can we imagine a great Norman nave, like Tewkesbury or Gloucester stretching westward? The intact Pershore Abbey was 325 feet long with arches at 50 feet high. Only a situation like this and a comparison with surviving buildings elsewhere can really impress us with the vast destruction which was wrought at the Dissolution. This Abbey of Pershore bears the name, Holy Cross, appears to have been founded as a secular community of canons as early as 690. There were various changes in station until it became a regular establishment of Benedictine monks who received their charter from King Edgar in 972."

Leatherbarrow continues: "It was richly endowed with lands in Worcestershire and Gloucestershire, and with salt pans in Droitwich, but some of its resources were alienated when King Edward took some portions to enrich his new foundation at Westminster, (London). The close connection between Pershore and Westminster is exemplified by the fact that the Dean and Chapter of Westminster are still patrons of the living of Pershore."

The above reference to the salt of Droitwich follows the thread of propinquity once again through the Soule-Sole family of Eckington, (Robert, salter), the Winslows of Droitwich, and the neighboring Sandys' in their home areas. Robert Soule-Sole was a contemporary of Bishop Edwin Sandys. Not only were they neighbors, but it is likely they were associated in a business way having to do with the salt production through the Bishop's jurisdiction of Pershore Abbey.

To explain: The Sandys' were father and son. Sir Edwin was the son of Bishop Edwin Sandys. Sir Edwin was the influential friend of Edward Winslow who spoke for him at the King's Council. The father was for a time, the Bishop of Worcester when he had jurisdiction of Pershore Abbey and its endowment from the salt pans of Droitwich. With Robert Soule-Sole a contemporary of the father and Edward Winslow and George Soule contemporaries of the son, and with home areas in close proximity, their familiarity with each other appears more conceivable. Edward Winslow at Droitwich was a very close neighbor of Sir Edwin when he moved from the family home in Wickhamford (near Evesham), to the town of Ombersley, a mile or so from Droitwich. Sir Edwin and his father, the Bishop both were reared in Wickhamford. There is a monument there to this illustrious family. The home at Ombersley remains today as a museum.

The home George left was a gentle place, though there were at times violence in the country. This pleasant place with its beautiful trees and quiet vistas could easily have helped form his character. A knowledge of growing things would have been intimate to him. George left those sights and sounds familiar to him in Eckington and Pershore. One wonders if, when he grew old in the forests of Duxbury, did he dream of those early days when he was young, and did he wander again in his mind through the beautiful ruins of Pershore Abbey just up the road?

An interesting note concerning the Sandys family and the changes and challenges of the day:

From VEXED AND TROUBLED ENGLISHMEN, Bridenbough, Oxford University Press, 1968, Pg. 389. " At Knightsbridge on June 5, 1616, Sir George Sandys (poet and later treasurer of the Virginia Company) with Isaac Hawkins also a gentleman, assaulted Anthony Culverwell in the highway and robbed him of his cloak, 40 shillings, and his watch. They also attacked and robbed John Fox, a gentleman, and unassisted, Sir George stopped the dramatist, John Marston and took his horse and much clothing. Later he joined the two others in a forth assault. A Middlesex Court judged Hawkins who had no money to make restitution, guilty and ordered him to be hanged. Sandys was found not guilty. One suspects this brother of Sir Edwin Sandys received special treatment."

Georges' eyes knew this place.

THREE ELLENER BROWNS

(This article was submitted by Alice E. Chace, 44 Whipple Ave., Riverside, RI 02915. She is the author of GEORGE SOULE, PILGRIM, AND ONE LINE OF HIS DESCENDENTS, reviewed on page 59 of this issue. William West, husband of Ellener Brown, has the following Soule lineage: William-5 West, John-4 West, Francis-3 West, Susannah-2 Soule, George-1.)

William West, Deputy Governor of Rhode Island and a prominent Revolutionary War figure, was married to an Ellener Brown whose identity does not seem to appear in the various books and articles in which her husband is discussed. Curious about who she was, the writer did some rummaging through the archives of the North Kingstown area where West grew up, and made the acquaintance of three Ellener Browns who are presented herewith.

1. Elinor Brown: Third wife of Beriah Brown, Elinor is identified in the Peirce Manuscripts of the R.I. Historical Society's Bates Collection. On page 95, Part I, it is noted that on 12 March, 1716/1717, Elinor, widow of Beriah Brown, deceased, signed a receipt for compensation she had received from her son Alexander Brown, heir to the said deceased, for all the household goods she brought to his father when she married him.

2. Elinor Brown: Wife of Charles Brown, the younger son of the above-mentioned Beriah Brown, is identified in several records of real estate transactions appearing in the same Peirce Manuscripts. "Charles Brown and wife Elinor to Benjamin Himes 52 acres Feb. 3, 1729/1730" is found on page 231. "1737 Charles Brown and wife Ellenor to Samuel Eldred" is found on page 338. "Charles Brown and wife Ellenor to son John Brown 20 acres" is found on page 390. This Ellenor Brown was still living when Charles Brown wrote his will in 1747.

3. Ellener Brown: Wife of Deputy Governor William West, daughter of Charles and Ellenor Brown, granddaughter of Beriah Brown and step-granddaughter of Beriah's third wife Elinor, this lady became the mother of twelve children born between 1752 and approximately 1782. She is identified through her father's will, which is on record in the North Kingstown town hall in Wickford, R.I., and which is summarized in the Peirce Manuscripts, Part III, page 1527. The North Kingstown record is clear enough, but lacks some fragments at the very bottom of one page which must have contained just the information for which we are looking. Charles, writing his will in 1747, makes due provision for his sons John, Charles, Samuel and Alexander, then goes on to state "allso I give and bequ _____ unto my Daughter Abigail One hundred pounds to be _____ son John in one year afte my Deceas and _____ unto my Daughter _____"

Here the page is entirely broken off, with the result that a line or two, in addition to the indicated lacunae, are missing. On the next page, once again legible, Charles occupies himself with provisions for his wife. The summary in the Peirce Manuscripts fills in these gaps nicely with the concluding words, "daughter Abigail, son John, Ex., and daughter Elinor West; wife Ellinor."

The two sets of archives from which the three Ellenor/Ellinor/Elinor Browns emerge have some history of their own. The North Kingstown records have undergone not one, but two, fires. Some pages are entirely lost and others, scorched, have lost their brittle portions, especially at the edges. The first of these fires occurred 16 Dec., 1870, at the time of a robbery at the First National Bank at Wickford, where the records were temporarily stored. The second fire occurred 11 Dec., 1920, in the Town Hall, and is described in a report on file in the Town Council Records, Book 46:498. The Peirce Manuscripts form part of the collection which came to the Historical Society from Louise Prosser Bates, genealogist, and collector of records of many kinds, known to have been born in 1857.

Some few facts about Beriah Brown may be of interest. He was born in Rowley, Mass., 8 July, 1648, eldest son of Charles and Mary (Acy) Brown. He married three times: (1) In Rowley, Mass., 6 Jan., 1673/1674, Sarah Harris, daughter of John Harris; one child, Sarah, baptized in Rowley 4 Nov., 1677; Sarah the wife died, Sarah the daughter was assigned to her grandmother, and Beriah moved to North Kingstown. (2) In Kingstowne, R.I., 1685, Abigail Phenix, daughter of Alexander and Abigail (Sewall) Phenix; sons Alexander and Charles, and perhaps a daughter Mary, were born, and then Abigail died; Charles, still an infant, went to live nearby with his grandmother Abigail Phenix, who later made him her heir. (3) Elinor _____, the lady mentioned as going on record with a receipt for compensation from her step-son Alexander in consideration of the goods she had brought with her at the time of her marriage. In 1709, Beriah Brown and Francis West Jr. bought adjacent parcels of land from the Colony Agents, both parcels described as land on which they already dwelled. Francis West Jr. was the son of Francis West and Susanna Soule, Susannah being the daughter of Mayflower Passenger George Soule and his wife Mary; further, he was the grandfather of William West the Deputy Governor. Propinquity has accounted for many a wedding. (Sources: Early Settlers of Rowley, Mass., Blodgett, George Brainard; Lafayette, R.I., Gardner, George W., Vital Records of Rowley; Genealogical Dict. of R.I., Austin, John O.)

Summarizing the West genealogy in Mayflower Families Through Five Generations, Vol. III, p. 260, Ann Borden Harding points out that William West and wife Ellener of Scituate, R.I. sold land to Charles Brown of North Kingstown, and that the metes and bounds suggest that Ellener and Charles were relatives. Noting that the date of this transaction is two decades after the death of Ellener's father, the writer believes that this Charles Brown was her brother.

CAMP SOULE

Boy Scout tents mark the spot of the Camp Soule wilderness site.

Numerous articles have appeared in recent Soule Kindred Newsletters about Camp Soule in Florida. By chance, your editor discovered the accompanying article which had been published in the July, 1968 Newsletter. It tells all about the establishment and naming of Camp Soule.

In response to the recent articles in the Newsletter, Kindred Member Mrs. C. F. Kohrt of Clearwater, FL, sent us several clippings from Florida newspapers. The most recent one (Aug. 31, 1983) is reproduced below. The sale of Camp Soule was voted down!

Council nixes plan to sell Camp Soule

By LESLEY COLLINS 8-31-83
Sun correspondent

ST. PETERSBURG—To the delight of many Boy Scout devotees throughout the area, members of the West Central Florida Council, Boy Scouts of America, Tuesday night narrowly defeated a proposal to sell Camp Soule in northern Clearwater.

Scouts, scoutmasters and even den mothers packed the Garden Crest United Presbyterian Church, 8931 Ninth Ave. N., as 119 members of the 270-member council voted 61-58 on the 50-year-old campsite's fate.

The question of whether to sell the 100-acre camp caused serious discord among local scouts and scouting interests this summer as Camp Soule's dollar value vs. its usefulness as a scout facility was debated.

The scout executive board on April 25 recommended selling Camp Soule, which rests along the southern shores of Lake Chautauqua in Countryside.

Advocates of the proposed sale, including council Commissioner Don Ford, said the proceeds would pull the scout council out of financial straits and allow the development of a much larger tract in southern Hernando County.

The sale would have involved using the estimated $8 million to $8 million in proceeds to cover the indebtedness of a portion of Camp Soule, boost the

CAMP SOULE - BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

Camp Soule is located at Safety Harbor, Florida, and is owned and operated by the Pinellas Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America, St. Petersburg, Florida. The camp was named for Mrs. Mortimer Soule. A dining hall, made out of logs, and many other improvements were built with money given by the Soule family. The Kiwanis Club of St. Petersburg donated a portion of the property and some of the buildings and equipment. Presently, Camp Soule consists of 100 acres, although the Scouts hope to locate a new camp with 1,200 acres and convert Camp Soule to a beginners camp.

Last year, the camp was used by 599 boys, with every campsite available being filled every weekend throughout the year! The camp subcommittee has issued a report recommending that the following repairs and additions be made as soon as possible: A new Dock, The addition of two latrines, a 30 x 60 storage building, seven new hot water showers, a new tractor, and a suitable living quarters for a resident camp director.

Mrs. Mortimer J. Soule was born Gladys Jeannette Mott, dau. of B. M. & Carrie Mott, 18 March 1896, in Bradford, Pennsylvania. She died in St. Petersburg, Pinellas County, Florida 3 May 1937. She had been an active member of the St. Petersburg Garden Club, was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and was deeply interested in the work of the Pinellas county Boy Scouts. Mr. Soule was, at the time, president of the Boy Scout executive board and also owner of Soule's Gladiolus Gardens. Mrs. Soule was survived by her father, husband, and two sons, Mortimer J. Soule Jr., and Douglas Soule.

Mr. Mortimer James Soule was born in Waterloo, New York 5-Nov. 1894, son of Clarence and Jessie (Lisk) Soule. He died in St. Petersburg, Pinellas County, Florida 19 Jan. 1962. He had been a civic leader in St. Petersburg, and his family was largely responsible for final acquisition of land for Boy Scout Camp Soule. Mr. Soule came to Florida in 1925 and played a major leadership role in work of the Community Chest, Rotary Club and the Pinellas Area Boy Scout Council. He was a graduate of Syracuse University and had served in W.W.I. The Soules also had a summer home at Whittier, N.C. Active in horticulture throughout his lifetime, he was owner of Soule's Gladiolus Gardens and had served as president of the Florida State Florists Association.

Mr. Soule started in the cut flower business in 1926 and in 1938 he told a local audience, "Just as we are enjoying the heritage of this beauty planted long ago, so will the future of a beautiful St. Petersburg depend upon what we plant now. He was a 32nd Degree Mason, member of St. Petersburg Lodge 139 F & AM, Coudersport Consistory, a Shriner, and also a member of the St. Petersburg Yacht Club, the Bath Club, and Kappa Sigma fraternity. He was a member of the Episcopal Church.

He was survived by his wife, Leila Walker Soule, a son, Dr. Mortimer James Soule of Gainesville, and two sisters, Mrs. Margueritte Soule Shoemaker of Rochester, N.Y., and Mrs. Robert Fessler of Los Angeles.

council's dwindling trust fund and help develop the 1,200-acre Sand Hill Scout Reservation, just east of Weeki Wachee in southern Hernando County.

In his speech placing the sale proposal on the floor, Ford said the scouts would best be served by Camp Soule's liquidation.

"(Camp Soule) is landlocked, in a highly urban area ... and has outlived its usefulness," Ford said.

Speaking about the recent talks of grass roots fund-raising to finance Sand Hill, Ford asked, "Where have they been?"

He said that fund-raising effort has been needed for the past 10 years.

He also suggested that Camp Soule does not serve long-term purposes and has lost its wilderness atmosphere due to residential development that continues to encroach from all sides.

Jean Bergere, the founder of several scout troops in Seminole and a vocal opponent of the proposed sale, said council leaders had not investigated alternatives.

She proposed postponing sale negotiations for two years in hopes of raising $2 million for Sand Hill's development.

That motion, however, was defeated handily.

Asked if the council would consider the fund-raising campaign suggested by several opponents of the camp's sale, council President Bruce Belnap said that possibility will be discussed at the executive board's Sept. 27 meeting.

"We've had a lot of words," Belnap said, "now we have to translate those words into action."

Before the meeting, 20 to 25 Boy Scouts and scout leaders lined Ninth Street in front of the church toting signs that read, "Don't be Fool, Don't Sell Soule," "Think of the Boys" and "Down with Condos, Up with Soule."

Ken DiGirolamo, an assistant scoutmaster from St. Petersburg who first visited Camp Soule in 1966, expressed the feeling shared by many who opposed the proposal to sell the camp.

"It's not remote," he said, "but it's enough to get away. It's still an escape."

MY PRAYER AT CORN HILL
BY ISABELLE FREEMAN

*Historic words may twist and turn to lies while truths fall sacrifice to pressure groups.
Thus Redmen say the Pilgrims stole supplies
(while petrified by Indian war-path whoops) from cache of corn for seeds and needed soups.
A theft which caused the Redmen hungry woe.
A theft to which no decent Pilgrim stoops, and Bradford claimed it did not happen so:
and stated in pedantic words that show they did but borrow with intent to pay and six months later caused "content" to flow to compensate the "Redskins" of that day.
The centuries pass. My heart now grows forlorn.
Please God, reward the Indians for that corn.*
