TRIBUTE TO GEORGE SOULE

Written and presented by Betty Whitecotten

It is with pride that we this tribute pay
To George Soule, our Pilgrim ancestor, today.
He who dared to risk his all
With a little Pilgrim band, so small.

A venture of faith was his to know
To a free land he was compelled to go.
Where God could be crowned
The Lord of all, to the unknown and the renowned.

Amid the turmoil of treacherous seas
With affliction, death and disease,
By the guidance of God's mighty hand,
Half were to reach this precious land.

Long years have passed since the Mayflower arrived in 1620
When our ancestor battled Indians and had trouble aplenty.

But faith in the future was his to share
With family and friends, proof of his loving care.

From servant to merchant, our ancestor came,
With wisdom and courage he was to attain
A place of respect in the colony, he achieved
When faith in God and himself, he believed.

It is our pleasure to salute you this day
Our ancestor, beloved Pilgrim Father, we say,
"Thank you for our heritage, from your tribulations
Which you freely gave for family and future generations."

Admiration, gratitude, love and devotion is ours
For our ancestor whom we honor, we place these flowers
In loving memory of George Soule, a courageous man, we know
A member of that Pilgrim band of long ago.

FROM YOUR EDITOR. . .

What a great Soule Kindred Reunion in 1984! It is always a thrill to visit Plymouth and Duxbury and walk in the places our ancestors walked. We enjoy meeting our cousins from past reunions-- and this year there were several "new" cousins who had travelled from as far as California, Tennessee, Canada, Arizona and Alabama to be with us. With the 1985 Reunion set for Minneapolis, we hope to encourage many from the western part of our country to attend. (A lot of the Soules took our relative's command "Go West, young man" seriously!) Start making your vacation plans now!

For those of you unable to attend the Plymouth Reunion, take special note of the Soule Cup Plate offer on page 132. Not only decorative souvenirs, the cup plates can be used as holders for tea bags or butter pats, and are excellent as gifts for granddaughters or as hostess gifts for friends. All proceeds from the sale of the cup plate will benefit the Colonel John E. Soule Scholarship Fund. We owe a debt of gratitude to Bettie Soule (wife of a Soule, mother of three Soules, and grandmother of three Soules) for making the arrangements.

We have some material for the January issue because we couldn't get everything in this time, due to the length of various reports on the reunion; we do need a lot more Milestones and News. Let your cousins know what's happening in your family.

President's Corner...

I consider it a singular honor to have been entrusted with the responsibilities of the presidency of our family organization.

I thank the nominating committee and the members in meeting assembled at Plymouth, Massachusetts for their votes of confidence in me to preside during our 1984-85 year.

All of the appointive officers are reappointed, they being knowledgeable, experienced persons of demonstrated talents.

Only Betty-Jean Haner has held the vital office of Treasurer. She continues to completely satisfy a succession of officers and the membership at large with her competence.

Historian Dr. Milton Terry is an invaluable asset of wisdom and dedication.

Membership Secretary Avis Haner was honored at our Plymouth reunion for her long service in a variety of activities benefiting Soule Kindred.

Marion O'Connell has provided a dimension of professional expertise to board meetings as Secretary to the Board.

Newsletter Editor Geraldine Schlosser produces a high quality magazine which we modestly label a newsletter.

Fred Soules labors faithfully and well at the task of Newsletter Publisher and Mary Crismore is an indexer of unerring ability. These generous, selfless Cousins operate your organization between the annual reunions.

To paraphrase a saying: This President would be foolish to tinker at fixing something that isn't broken!

Your 1985 reunion will be held in Minneapolis but the dates will not be known until late December or early January. Kindly give The North Star State of the Upper Midwest your vacation considerations.

SOULE KINDRED REUNION
KINGSTON, MASSACHUSETTS
September 6-9, 1984

The annual Soule Kindred Reunion was held at the Howard Johnson Motor Inn in Kingston, Massachusetts, September 6-9, 1984.

Thursday evening, September 6, was devoted to registration and renewal of friendships with other Soule Kindred and their families in the Conference Room of the Motor Inn. Dr. Glenn Whitecotten, President, served as host. Refreshments were available. The President announced that members should be in lobby at 9:00 AM Friday for bus tour to Sandwich, Massachusetts.

Friday morning, September 7, everyone went by bus or car to Sandwich, Massachusetts for a very interesting tour, visiting the Pairpoint Glass Co., the Glass Museum, Hoxie House, Burgess Museum and Yesteryear's Doll Museum. We all then met at Horizon's for a delicious "dutch treat" lunch. After lunch the group went to see th Heritage Plantation with its antique car museum, the Arts & Crafts Museum where most of us rode on the Carousel, and other items of interest. We returned to Howard Johnson's about 5:30 PM.

LUNCH AT HORIZONS

HELEN GOODYEAR ON THE CAROUSEL

Friday night the annual meeting of the Board was held at the Drew House in Duxbury, with the President calling the meeting to order at 7:20 PM. Officers attending were: Dr. Glenn Whitecotten, President; Ben George Soule, 1st Vice President; Betty-Jean Haner, Treasurer; Dr. Milton Terry, Historian; Mrs. Avis Haner, Membership Secretary; Mrs. Marian O'Connell, Secretary to the Board; Mrs. Geraldine Schlosser, Newsletter Editor; and Mrs. Mary Crismore, Newsletter Indexer. Board members present were: Class of 1984 - Dan Pearce and Dorothea Wilhelm; Class of 1985 - Dr. Glenn Whitecotten, George S. Soule and Ben George Soule; and Class of 1986 - Mrs. Opal Soule Manly and Mrs. Betty Whitecotten. Miss Anne Borden Harding, former Historian General of the General Society of Mayflower Descendants, was a guest.

The President thanked Sabina Crosby for the cookies and coffee.

The President stated the first order of business was the selection of officers for 1985 and the following slate was proposed:

President	- Ben George Soule
1st Vice President	- Linda Soule Preston
2nd Vice President	- George S. Soule
Treasurer	- Betty-Jean Haner
Historian	- Dr. Milton Terry
Membership Secretary	- Mrs. Avis Haner
Secretary to the Board	- Dr. Glenn Whitecotten
Class of 1987	- Dan Pearce
	- Dorothea Wilhelm
	- Marian O'Connell

The above slate was unanimously approved for presentation to the members at the Annual Business Meeting on Saturday.

The next item for discussion was the Five Generation Project - Volume III (the Soule volume). Dr. Terry reported that the Mayflower Society was coming out with an Addenda to Volume III containing corrections, and stated he had not seen it. He stated that he and Anne Harding had been working on an Addenda to Volume III, which they hoped to have ready by the end of the year. He recommended that Soule Kindred publish their own Addenda and proposed that the Board get two or three professional genealogists to edit it. Miss Harding stated she had been checking the record of the Haskells and was looking for one more document to clear that up. After considerable discussion, a motion was made and seconded that the new President appoint an Editorial Board of impeccable authority to review and edit the Addenda. Motion was unanimously approved.

Motion was made and seconded authorizing the President to spend up to one thousand dollars ($1,000) to finance the Editorial Board. Motion approved.

Dr. Terry stated he would like to get approval from the Board to ask permission from the New England Historic Genealogical Society to publish an article by Donald Lines Jacobus on rules of evidence in the Newsletter. The Board approved.

Dr. Terry announced that he had 13 copies of the Soule Index which needed to be circulated to members for corrections and additions. Those interested should get in touch with Opal Manly who has the copies for distribution. It will cost $4.00 for postage and handling.

The method of publication of the Addenda was then brought up for discussion. Dr. Terry moved that rather than putting out a Revised Edition of Vol. III that the Board consider redoing Ridlon. The Motion was tabled.

The President then called for the Treasurer's Report. The Treasurer's report was approved as presented.

Miss Betty-Jean Haner, Chairman of the Scholarship Committee, reported that the Committee had selected Miss Diane Lynn Hulse of Eugene, Oregon as the recipient of the Scholarship for the coming year. She stated that Diane was the outstanding candidate and the unanimous choice of the Committee.

Dr. Whitecotten reported that Bettie Soule (Mrs. Francis G. Soule, Jr. of Sandwich, MA) had helped Dorothea Wilhelm with the arrangements of the Sandwich tour. After talking with him by telephone, she made arrangements with the Pairpoint Glass Works in Sandwich to make a Soule Cup Plate as a memento of our Reunion, as well as a fund-raising item for the Scholarship Fund. He stated the Cup Plate would be sold for $7.00, with the excess over costs to be put into the Scholarship Fund, and that she would have them available for sale.

Motion was made and seconded that the Treasurer be authorized to pay for the Soule Cup Plates. Motion approved.

President Whitecotten announced that Ben George Soule had offered to host the Reunion in Mineapolis in 1985 and recommended the Board accept his offer. The Board unanimously approved having the next reunion in Minneapolis. Ben George stated plans were already made but that he would not be able to set the date until the end of the year after his vacation time had been scheduled. Hopefully he will have an announcement on it for the January Newsletter.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 9:50 PM.

Saturday morning everyone met in the Parking lot of the Motor Inn and formed a motor caravan to Duxbury. We visited the Pilgrim Burial Site and held a brief ceremony at the grave site of George Soule. We then visited the Bradford House, the King Caesar House, and then on to the Alden House for our Annual Business Meeting and Clam Bake. Members toured the Alden House while there.

PILGRIM BURIAL SITE

CLAM BAKE AT ALDEN HOUSE

The Annual Business Meeting of Soule Kindred was held before lunch and was called to order by President Whitecotten at 12 Noon in the Activities Building at the Alden House. He welcomed the members and called on those attending for the first time to stand and introduce themselves and state where they were from. He then introduced the Honorary Life Members present, and recognized those in charge of putting all the Reunion activities together-- Dan Pearce, Dorothea Wilhelm and Bettie Soule.

The President stated the first order of business was the election of officers for 1985 and read the slate, as approved by the Board, including the Board members for the Class of 1987. Motion was made and seconded that the nominations be closed and that the Secretary cast one vote for the entire slate. Motion was unanimously approved.

The President called for the Treasurer's Report. The Treasurer, Betty-Jean Haner, distributed copies of the report and stated she thought it was self-explanatory but would be glad to answer any questions members might have. There being none, the Report was approved as presented.

Miss Betty-Jean Haner, Chairman of the Scholarship Committee, then presented their Report, stating that Miss Diane Lynn Hulse of Eugene, Oregon had been unanimously selected by the Committee as the recipient for 1984 as the outstanding candidate.

The Historian, Dr. Milton Terry, reported that he was checking out records of lineage and made reference to articles in the Newsletter on genealogical records. He asked members to send him any new lines they have established and any corrections they might have on established lines. He urged members to get one of the copies of the Soule Index to check for corrections or additions and to let him know of any changes that should be made.

Dr. Whitecotten called on Bettie Soule to report on the Soule Cup Plate project. Mrs. Soule described the plate and said she had them for sale at $7.00 each, and had some seconds at $3.50 each.

IN THE BACKGROUND:

MR. & MRS. CALVIN SOULE'

The President announced that the 1985 Reunion would be hosted by the President-elect, Ben George Soule, in Minneapolis, MN, with the date to be announced at the end of this year.

Dan Pearce announced that the Soule Kindred had been invited to attend the First Parish Church in Duxbury on Sunday at 10:30 AM. President Whitecotten said a motor caravan would leave from the Motor Inn at 10 AM for those wishing to attend. Dr. Whitecotten stated there would be a meeting in the Conference Room at the Motor Inn at 8 PM for a presentation of a Soule Tour to England in 1986, and also the showing of the slides on Soule Kindred.

The President-elect, Ben George Soule, moved that the following members be named Honorary Life members: Mrs. Mary Crismore, Mrs. Betty Harris, Miss Shirley Soule Smith, and Mrs. Avis Haner. Motion was seconded and unanimously approved.

Dr. Whitecotten announced that following lunch, the group should reconvene for a talk by Dr. Robert M. Bartlett.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 12:55 PM, with Betty Whitecotten closing the meeting by reading a Prayer she had written.

As usual, the lunch was delicious and of enormous quantity-- clam chowder, steamed clams, lobsters, chicken, steak, corn on the cob, hot rolls, watermelon-- and beverages of many choices. Too much!!!!

Following lunch, the members reconvened in the Activities Building to hear Dr. Robert Bartlett and his wife, Jane, give a very interesting talk on "My Corner of New England."

The members then went back to Howard Johnsons for a brief rest-- and dinner-- before convening in the Conference Room to hear the presentation on a Soule Tour to England and the viewing of the Soule Kindred slides.

Sunday saw several members departing for home and others going to the service at the First Parish Church in Duxbury. After the Church service several left for home (some by circuitous routes), and others remained to attend the Mayflower Congress in Plymouth.

It was a great reunion-- always great to see Soule Cousins. See you all in Minneapolis in 1985.

1984 SCHOLARSHIP WINNER

Dianne Lynn Hulse has been named the 1984 Col. John Edward Soule Scholarship winner.

She is the daughter of Phyllis A. Soule Hulse and Richard Hulse of Eugene, Oregon.

Dianne has been accepted at the University of Oregon and will be majoring in mathematics. She plans to teach.

In Winston Churchill High School, Dianne was a member of the Flag Squad, Marching Band and the National Honor Society.

She was a Camp Fire Girl and an active member of the Youth Group at Westminster Church. She also taught Sunday School.

Quoting from one of Dianne's teachers: "Throughout Dianne's high school years, she has been very active in Camp Fire Girls organization. Last year, she was given the Wohelco medallion, the highest honor given in Camp Fire Girls. Dianne's extra-curricular activities have centered around her community. As a Counselor in training for Camp Fire Girls, a Sunday School teacher for pre-school in her church, and her volunteer work in a nursing home over the past four years, Dianne has developed a keen appreciation, respect and love for human beings both young and old."

For relaxation, Dianne says she plays the piano and plans to continue with lessons at college. She hopes to become a Camp Fire Group Leader because she enjoyed the program and wants to share the concepts it teaches.

Dear Miss Haner,

I want to thank the committee for selecting me to receive the Colonel John Edward Soule Memorial Scholarship. I will do my best to be worthy of the honor in the coming years at the University of Oregon.

I have registered at the University of Oregon but the paper cannot be signed until school starts in September. It will be returned to you then. College will give me many valuable experiences and I'm looking forward to attending in the fall.

My family and I thank you again for honoring me and my academic work with this scholarship.

Thankfully,

Dianne L. Hulse

SOULE CUP PLATE

The design of the Soule Kindred cup plate features the Soule House at Plimoth Plantation, with a border design of trailing arbutus, also called "mayflower", and the border also includes "Soule Kindred" at the top. The date 1984 is at the bottom of the house. It is being pressed in first quality lead crystal (light green only) at the Pairpoint Glass Company, located on the banks of the Cape Cod Canal in Sagamore, MA-- about two miles from Sandwich Village. Master engraver, Andrew Bourbon of Brewster, is the designer and mould maker. His initials (AB) appear adjacent to the rim base at the lower left. The Pairpoint Diamond Trademark  appears adjacent to the rim base at the lower right. The edge or rim has 25 scallops with three dots. The number assigned to this Pairpoint cup plate is #P329.

Cup plates were used between 1826 and 1850 when fashion decreed tea cups without handles. Hot tea was poured into deep saucers to cool, while the cup was placed on a small plate to prevent damage to linens or polished tables. Many examples of antique cup plates are on display at the Sandwich Glass Museum.

It is generally believed that the Boston and Sandwich Glass Company (1825-1888) was the first American firm to produce cup plates. They were one of the first items to be pressed in quantity after the invention of the glass pressing machine. It is in this fine tradition that the contemporary hand-made cup plates have been produced on an antique press at Pairpoint Glass Works since 1974. The Soule Kindred limited edition cup plate will truly be a collector's item!

Henchman S. Soule

FREEMPORT — Henchman S. "Hank" Soule, 75, of Beech Hill Road, died yesterday at a Brunswick hospital after a brief illness.

He was born here, a son of Guy and Mary Jane McChesney Soule.

Mr. Soule was a Navy veteran of World War II and a member of AMVETS and the Freeport Historical Society.

He was a carpenter and had worked for several construction companies, including Gibson Construction Co. He retired in 1974.

Surviving are his wife, the former Margaret Hayward; and a sister, Louise L. Soule of New York City.

A funeral will be held at 11 a.m. tomorrow at Lindquist Funeral Home, 37 Portland St., Yarmouth. Burial will be in Burr Cemetery.

William Soule, Preservationist, Editor

BURLINGTON — William Harry Soule, 49, formerly of Barre, died Saturday in the Medical Center Hospital of Vermont here following a brief illness. He was radio and news editor for the University of Vermont Extension Service.

A native of Burlington, he was son of Mrs. Lois (Alger) Soule and the late Harris Wells Soule. His father was Vermont commissioner of development in the administration of Gov. Ernest Gibson.

After graduating from Burlington High School, he was a member of the 1956 graduating class of the University of Vermont. He also had graduate degrees in history from UVM and in counselling from Goddard College.

Before joining the UVM Extension Service, he had been executive director of the Vermont Association of Mental Health.

From 1956 to 1958, he served with the U.S. Army.

After his discharge, he was engaged as a newspaperman, first with the Burlington Free Press and later with the Caledonian Record in St. Johnsbury.

From 1965 to 1970, Mr. Soule was an English instructor and director of public relations for Vermont College in Montpelier.

In 1970, he managed the campaign of Leo O'Brien Jr. of South Burlington, Democratic nominee for governor.

The following year, he directed the successful development campaign in behalf of the Vermont Historical Society which culminated in the construction and furnishing of the society's museum in the Pavilion Office Building in Montpelier.

In 1972, he became founding editor of the Washington World newspaper.

He joined the Extension Service in 1977 following five years as director of the mental health association.

Mr. Soule maintained a lifelong interest in historic preservation and, until the time of his death, was active in the efforts to preserve the Ethan Allen Tower in Burlington's North End.

In addition to his mother, living in Burlington, he leaves two daughters, Elizabeth and Sarah Soule of Bailey Avenue in Barre; two sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Watson, Fitchburg, Mass., and Mrs. Caroline Hill, Bayside, N.Y., and Grand Isle; nieces and nephews. He was formerly married to Alice Savoia of Barre.

A memorial service is planned for later this week in St. Paul's Church (Episcopal) in Burlington.

The family has requested that memorial contributions, in lieu of flowers, be made to Vermont Public Radio, Windsor.

JIM CRISMORE

Jim Crismore New Cascade Band Director

CLAYTON — Just in time for the opening of school, Cascade High School has a new band director, Jim Crismore. Practice has started, and the band will play for Friday night's football game, though they will not perform on the field.

Crismore is an Indianapolis native who graduated from North Central High School, but he has local ties. His father, F.E. Crismore, grew up in Clayton.

This is the first band Crismore will direct, although he was director of the orchestra at Stony Brook Junior High in Warren Township, Marion County, after his graduation from Ball State University in 1982.

Last year, he was choir director at Fort Recovery, Ohio.

He did his student teaching at Northwest High School in Indianapolis.

Besides teaching, Crismore plays the guitar in a bluegrass band, Shady Grove, and participated in the Thanksgiving Day parade in Detroit with them two years ago.

"I am parade-oriented," he said, "and after we see what the band can do, I want to participate in parades as much as possible."

Crismore is getting married Oct. 13, "so I hope there isn't a parade that day," he chuckled, "although if it's early enough it won't be a problem — the wedding's in the evening."

Jennie Crismore named Achievement Academy National Award Winner

The United States Achievement Academy announced today that Jennie Crismore has been named a 1984 United States National Award winner in Mathematics.

This award is prestigious honor very few students can ever hope to attain. In fact, the Academy recognizes less than 10% of all American high school students.

Jennie Crismore, who attends Charlestown High School was nominated for this National Award by Mr. Tom Narron, a Mathematics teacher at the school. Jennie will appear in the United States Achievement Academy Official Yearbook, published nationally.

THE STORY OF GEORGE SOULE
by Mrs. Edwin S. Harris

LONDON IN 1620

When George saw London in those days it was a raw but wondrous place. It was filled with people, bad smells, mud, and noise but it was an amazing city with a flavor more Latin than today, and more boisterous. The crowds consisted of people of contrasts in dress and speech. Each man announced his calling or work and his place in life by his clothing. Today their likes could be seen only at a masquerade party. Merchant, knight, courtier, prior, monk, gallant, soldier, pedlar, apothecary, ballad singer, beggar, cut-purse, cripple, water-carrier, milkmaid, money-changer, all were there to see and each had his own manners and drab or gaudy clothes.

People lived much more in the street. They transacted much business there. They had carnivals in the street. Grown men as well as children played games and sports there. They aired their complaints just as they do today in Hyde Park. And in the street in the pillory (stocks) or on the gallows they paid for their daring. In the days before newspapers, news of invasion, or battle, of rebellion, and treason, was cried in the street by messengers on steaming horses.

The streets were far more noisier than later generations have known. Craftsman worked in open shops or sheds. There was hammering and grinding, sawing, and planing. Women did their needle work at the door. There was the thunder of iron wheels stone if in Cheapside Street, the only paved thoroughfare in 1620. Trumpets blared, and musicians played against each other. There was the clatter of horses, the wailing of the beggar and the back talk of the quarrelsome. By extreme contrast, there was the blessed ringing of church bells on a dozen occasions during the day.

One must remember that this city of London that George knew was the city before the Great Fire of 1666. The fire destroyed an immense area taking endless streets and almost all the wooden buildings. Even the mighty Cathedral of St. Paul's, though made of stone, was a complete ruin. It was of a different appearance than the St. Paul's built by the talented Sir Christopher Wren who had such a hand in the rebuilding of London.

As we picture George arriving in the city one wonders if he was thinking of calling on any relatives he might have had. He was thought by Banks to have had kindred in London, perhaps the sons or daughters of the now deceased Robert Sole, salter. There would have been Uncle Myles who inherited the main wealth of the salter, Robert of Eckington. The older brother of Myles named William died in 1620. It is only conjecture, but could the grandson of George who was named Myles have been named for the long ago Uncle in London?

Imagine George in London waking on a spring morning in a raftered room on old London Bridge. He could hear the water rushing through the arches, the clank and wheeze of the water mills that obstructed the river in many of the nineteen openings. On opening the window, what a London he would have seen! The old black and white houses that were later swept away by the fire were picturesque and crowded to the river's edge, their flower beds overlooking the river. Above the roof tiles rose the towers of the churches, the highest of all, the steeple of St. Paul's.

In those days when the river was the main highway of London, a house on London Bridge would have been like a house on the Grand Canal of Venice. Those who lived on the bridge occupied a watch tower from which almost everything that happened on the Thames could be seen as well as heard.

We don't know that George ever had a room on London Bridge but he saw it and was fascinated by it. The bridge was incredibly old. The first London Bridge was made of wood. It was in the 1100's that this solid stone span was built, and as was the fashion of the time, houses and shops were constructed on both sides the entire length. In the period George and the Pilgrims might have crossed London Bridge, it must have been extremely inconvenient. The foot path was not of the same width all the way. At one place it was only 12 foot wide. The overhanging houses made the roadway dark for most of the length, and frequent arches of timber from roof top to roof top kept the 400 year old houses from tumbling in the river.

The only list of shopkeepers on the bridge was made in 1633. At that time there was a fire when a number of houses were destroyed.

The list was made only 13 years after George left England. Among those burned out were eight haberdashers, six hosiers, one shoe maker, two glovers, two mercers, one "distiller of strong waters", one girdler, one linen graper, one woolen draper, one pin maker, and one Curate of St. Magnus the Martyr Church. It is well known that at one time there were many book sellers on London Bridge. Earlier, Holbein, the famous painter of Henry VIII, was said to have lived on the bridge. It is not difficult to picture George Soule turning over a book in the book stalls or making a last minute purchase of perhaps, pins, before leaving. I wonder how often Shakespeare might have been seen looking about the same area? They could possibly ^{have} looked at each other if George had been more in his boyhood. It was the only bridge across the Thames until 1749.

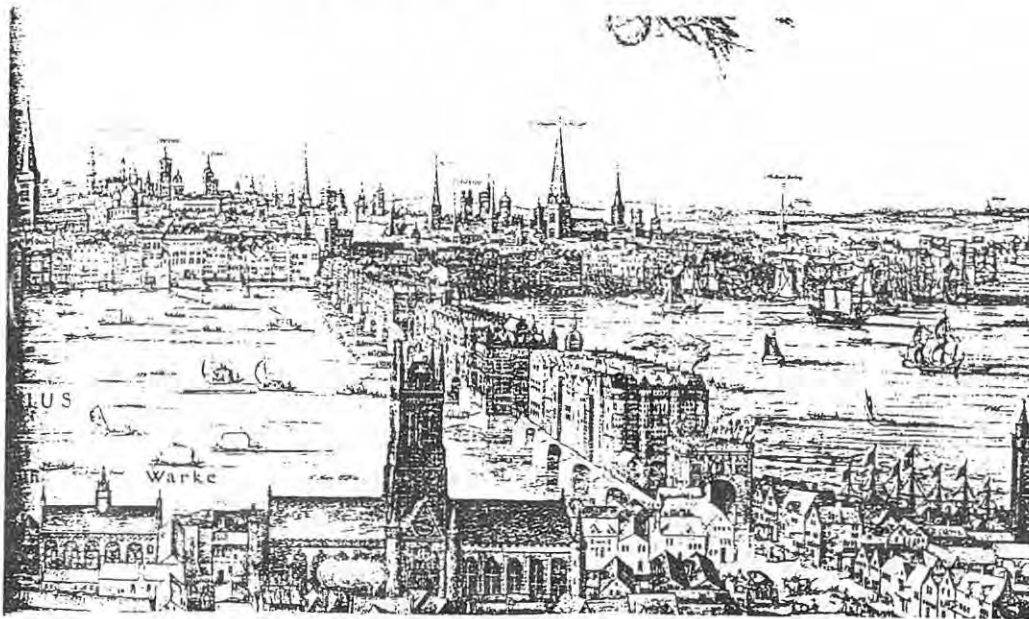

There were endless eye openers for a young man, and the excitement of London would have been like going to the County Fair every day. Did he spend time on Bread Street, the location of holdings in the salt business of his kindred Robert Sole-Soule of Eckington? Did the business still belong to Uncle Miles? Bread Street appears a very pleasant street at that time. It became a slum area in later years.

My husband and I will never forget a walk we took in this same part of Old London in 1952 when the scars of war were still visible. We walked the empty streets with nothing but vacant deep cellars and devastation over a wide area. The rubble had been cleared away and street signs had been replaced in this open faceless part of the city. We stopped at a Lyon's for tea as soon as we left the blighted blocks. We had been seated for a short time when we were unexpectedly joined by an old woman who might have been a char woman. She had a cockney accent, difficult to understand, but made us ^{know} her digs had been in the devastated area near the docks. She wanted us to know of the horror of the bombings and the fires. She had an aristocratic look about her with her long narrow Norman face but all changed when she spoke. She was none too clean. She kept saying, "Hit today feir chainged by the rivah," meaning, today it had changed by the river. We loved her. She was Dickensque with wisps of hair sticking straight out of her hat. She showed such an independent spirit in spite of her lot. She was a pleasant wonder to us.

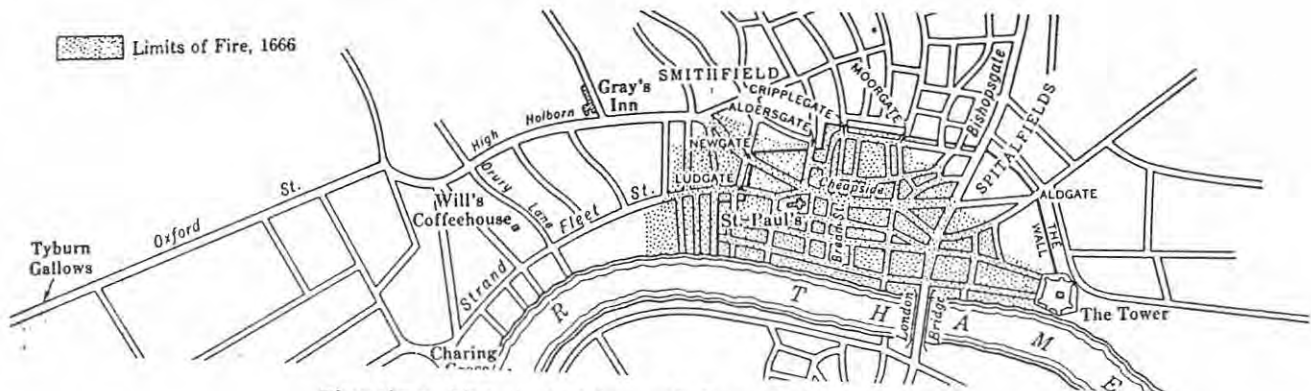

That evening late we walked again, this time down Threadneedle Street to the Bank of England and into Poultry Street. This section had not suffered. Our footsteps echoed on the cobbles as we entered some of the ancient narrow streets which were deserted at that time of the evening. The tall modern buildings had not made their appearance in 1952. There were just the old buildings crowded together, some great, some small. Some were elegant and some were quaint. Suddenly we came upon a lamp lighter making his rounds! He gave us a cheery greeting as we walked by.

That walk was enchanting, but only a slight introduction to the city of George's day. The streets have kept their names through the ages in London. Only the people who have walked them have changed. Did our George Soule hear his echoing footsteps, on a misty evening, once long ago? I'm sure he did!

MAINE CEMETERIES

We are beginning a listing of Soule related persons buried in Maine cemeteries. These cemetery listings were compiled by Donald H. Maguire in 1967. It must be noted (as Mr. Maguire does in his introduction) that the information in brackets was obtained from various sources, some of which cannot be considered reliable. Such information must be checked in vital records for confirmation. We are listing Cemeteries 1 through 4 in this issue. Others will follow in succeeding Newsletters.

A name index has been prepared by Jim Schlosser; this follows the cemetery listings, and is an index to all the cemeteries in the compilation.

GRAVESTONE INSCRIPTIONS AND BURIALS

WITH

ANCESTRAL TRACINGS

AND

OTHER MISCELLANEOUS DATA

Data contained herein that is not bracketed or parenthesized was personally copied by this compiler from gravestones, markers, or monuments. Some data was obtained from official cemetery records where graves were without any type of marker. Much time was spent at each of these cemeteries and great care was exercised to assure that transcriptions have been accurately done.

Material contained within the brackets or the parentheses has been added to that material taken from the stones or records in the cemeteries in order to set down additional information and identifications. This material was researched from other sources and is as accurate as can be best determined from files at the compilers home.

This compiler can support much of what is contained herein from vital records, legal records, and other official documents. Some of it can be supported from family records furnished by living relatives.

This material has been prepared in the hope that others may derive some pleasure or benefit from its use and to that end it is hoped that if any errors or exceptions are taken to what I have set down, that it will be reported to me. I will then check it or have it checked and make any necessary changes, if warranted.

NAME INDEX TO MAINE CEMETERIES

In most cases the index is alphabetized according to the name on a gravestone or when Mr. Maguire cited documentation for a specific record. The cemetery code is listed after the name.

If a gravestone listed a maiden name for a woman but the stone also had the phrase "his wife", referring to an adjacent stone of a man, that woman is indexed under both her maiden and married names.

Mr. Maguire did research on most persons beyond inscriptions on gravestones. He cited only general sources rather than individual documentation. Since this is a Soule family newsletter, where Mr. Maguire indicated a woman was a SOULE descendant, she is indexed not only under her married name but also under SOULE. Since that is not documented for individuals, such listings include a star.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

From Robin Malernee, 9968 Lincoln Village Drive, Sacramento, CA 95827

Searching for ancestors of Margaret SOULS, born 13 March 1828 in Pennsylvania. She married William DEULEY, and resided in Brook County, West Virginia. She died between 1910 and 1920 at the home of her daughter, Harriet (Mrs. Charles H. CLARY) in Cambridge, Guernsey Co., OH.

From Thomas F. Sowles, 829 1/2 Marquette, South Milwaukee, WI 53211

Need proof that Jacob SOWLE, b. 28 June 1773 Tiverton RI, d. 28 Apr 1859 (bur. Union Cem., Ft. Atkinson WI) m. Rebecca SECOR was son of Jacob-5 (William-4, Sylvanus-3, Nathaniel-2, George-1) and Meribah LEWIS SOWLE. Jacob and Rebecca had son Daniel b 1801 in NY (probably Blenheim, Schoharie Co.), died 1873 in Koshkonong, Jefferson Co., WI. Daniel was my gr-gr-gr-grandfather. Lineage from Jacob follows:

Jacob Sowle m. Rebecca Secor

Daniel Sowle m. Fanny Stevens/Stephan

George W. Sowle m. Harriet Secor

Edward Franklin Sowles m. Harriet Hurd

Daniel Clark Sowles m. Martha Myrtle Mohns

George Edward Sowles m. Betty Jane Klingbeil

Thomas Floyd Sowles m. Barbara Ann Brown

From Betty Aaroen, 4213 Oak St., McFarland, WI 53558

On family of Zebedee-6 (Jonathan-5, Micah-4, Josiah-3, John-2, George-1) Soule, does anyone have more information on Celia Jane-7 b. 24 Sept 1824 Waterville ME. Believe she may have married (----) Ellis and resided in St. Albans, ME. Does anyone have information on Norman-7 b 9 Sept 1823 Waterville ME? Was in Potter, Rock Co. WI in 1847.

JIM BOLLES SPEAKS AT REUNION

Jim Bolles, Director of Family Society Tours, spoke at the Saturday evening meeting of Soule Kindred. He showed slides of Eckington, England, which he visited the past summer. (This has been considered a possible birthplace of George Soule.) There were also slides of other family group tours, which showed the interesting events of such a trip-- such as an Elizabethan banquet, tours of London and Oxford, as well as personal contact with people in the ancestral village of the family group. A SOULE FAMILY tour is being planned for 1986. More information will be included in future newsletters, and all members will receive a special mailing.
