PRESIDENT'S CORNER

In February, I thoroughly enjoyed a quick trip to Montreal while visiting friends in Hyde Park, NY. Two days in this fantastic city, enjoying the Olympic Village, Montreal Underground, the best bagels in the world, and the old city with its fantastic restaurants, which I must confess, I know of no place where there is a greater concentration of fine restaurants, proved to me that any of the Soule Kindred who miss Montreal in the fall for our reunion will miss a great experience!

The dual personality of French/English in Montreal gives a quaintness to your visit that will make it memorable. I look forward with great enthusiasm in greeting hundreds of Soule Kindred at our reunion this year in this fabulous city. What a stroke of luck to have the invitation extended by Stanley Soule and his family. How we look forward to it.

Purely a sidelight, but let me put it in writing in our newsletter to settle once and for all that David Soul, the Hollywood actor and TV star is not a member of our family (unfortunately for him-ha). He is a native Dakotan and his proper surname is Solberg!

Though we can't count David Soul, we are pleased to account Olan Soule', a radio, screen and TV actor as a member of our Kindred. I remember listening to Olan on the radio when radio was the principal form of home entertainment--our eyes glued to the lighted dial of a huge Philco radio and console, the same radio which brought us the news of Pearl Harbor during dinner one Sunday afternoon.

I've been invited to attend a Soule Family Reunion in Faribault by Director Bonnie Wochnick of Owatonna, MN this summer. I look forward to meeting many additional Soules from the Southern part of the state and encouraging their membership in the Kindred. Family gatherings are a wonder when they are truly cross generational.

Let's try a special emphasis this year to bring our children and grandchildren to enjoy our Reunion in Montreal this August.

Faithfully,
Jim

Dear Soule Kindred

We are pleased to inform you that plans are well under way for this year's reunion in Montreal, Canada. This will be the first time it will be held outside of the United States and we are hoping many of you will take the opportunity to discover this historic city.

Montreal is an island in the Saint-Lawrence River discovered by Jacques Cartier in 1535. First called "Mount Royal", because of the mountain in the middle of the island, it quickly became the center of Canada's fur trade. Old Montreal has many historic buildings dating as far back as the mid 1600's and of course we are planning a visit to the "Old City".

Montreal is one of the great gastronomic centers in North America. Its countless restaurants add to the city's special flavor, through ambiance and variety. Although noted for its gourmet and French cuisine, Montreal also offers the authentic French-Canadian cooking as well as international dining.

By law, menus and prices must be posted outside any dining establishment. Ethnic restaurants, proof of Montreal's cosmopolitan nature, neighborhood restaurants, sidewalk cafes, tea rooms, cafes-theatres add to the visitor's choices.

Try French bread in Montreal or a bagel: both are reputed to be the best on the continent. So is the smoked meat.

Quebec specialities include beer, cider, maple syrup, lobster from the Magdalen Islands, Matane shrimp and Gaspé Salmon.

Although Montreal is known as a French City, it is the third largest in the world, you will have no problem speaking English in Hotels, Restaurants, Shops and Tourist Attractions, and the French culture adds a special charm to the city.

We are accessible by major highways and have good rail and air service. Dorval airport is located 15 minutes from the downtown core, and most US airlines serve our city.

We have chosen the Ramada Renaissance hotel as the Reunion Headquarters which is just a few minutes walk to the downtown area. It has been recently renovated and is a first class hotel.

We are presently working on organizing many different visits. We are asking you to participate by indicating which activities would be of interest to you and we will publish the final program in the July issue of Soule Kindred Newsletter. Sign up and payment for all activities and visits will be done when you register in Montreal.

Saturday night will of course be the banquet evening with a reception before hand at the hotel. Sunday morning we will have a church service followed by a full American breakfast.

We are presently researching the possibilities of an all day trip Monday to either Ottawa, Canada's Capital or Quebec City. Again we are hoping for your feedback.

The average daytime temperature for Montreal in August is 75 F. It is the ideal time of year for sightseeing. Our hotel has a large outdoor pool for those who would prefer to relax in the sun.

First time to Canada ? Border formalities, as a general rule are simple and fast. The basic requirements is proof of citizenship. The visitor is verbally requested to reply to questions regarding length and purpose of stay.

U.S. citizens and permanent residents need no passport or visa to enter Canada, although possession of a valid passport is ideal identification. Some proof of citizenship or residence - a birth certificate, social security, naturalization certificate or alien registration card - is sufficient.

We urge you to register as early as possible as August is Montreal's busiest month for tourists. If you have any questions concerning the reunion or Montreal. Please contact Carol or Monica Soule, address and phone number on hotel registration form.

Your Canadian cousins are looking forward to meeting you !

LETTERS AND INQUIRIES

From Barbara Soule Larson, San Antonio, TX

I was delighted to find the Search for John (6) Sowl in the July 1989 issue of Soule Kindred. My thanks to Shirley Sowles Patterson for getting her friend to research the files in New York. Now I have my missing link verified. I had picked him out of the Five Generations book as a possibility, but had no proof. Note to Shirley--My 3rd cousin Caroline (12) Longardner had gotten her info from me and I'm from Rochester, MI originally. What a small world! Thanks again.

The complete line is: 1-George Soule, 2-Nathaniel Soule, 3-Sylvanus Soule, 4-William Soule, 5-Edward Sowl, 6-John Sowl, 7-John Sowl, 8-Edward Sowle, 9-John Cannon Soule, 10-Charles E. Soule, 11-Cameron Charles Soule, 12-Barbara Soule Larson.

From Eloise Soule Nielsen, Peoria, IL.

In March 1990, Harald and I visited the Island of Nassau in the Bahamas. We saw cruise ships come into the harbor and learned from the historical society of the shallow waters surrounding the islands. Coral is the basic structure of these islands and ships not familiar with these waters had trouble finding the deep channels. As we came home and checked the Soule Kindred Newsletter (Vol. 24, No. 1, pg. 10) we found that ships "Don Juan" 1841 and "Sentinel" 1856 from the Soule Shipyard in South Freeport, ME were among those shipwrecked.

I am searching for a book written by Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Rowland. The book title is 'Ten Generations of the Barber Family'. The address for the Rowlands in 1983 was 1901 Mountaim View Dr., Great Falls, Mt. 59401 I would appreciate any information on the book and the current address of Mr. and Mrs. Rowland.

Byways of Britain

Experience England and Scotland with the "Dean of the Traveloguers," Thayer Soule. You'll begin at the southwest tip of England, at Land's End, and travel to the purple heathered mountains of northern Scotland.

See 2½ million tulip bulbs in breathtaking bloom, a gift from Holland after WW II. Visit quaint coastal fishing villages, the wild ponies of Dartmoor, charming thatched-roofed towns, popular resorts, and the curiosity of the ages — Stonehenge. Chimes of Big Ben welcome you to London where you'll hire a taxi at Trafalgar Square for a fascinating tour. Stroll through antique "supermarkets." Enjoy boat cruises and touring resplendent castles and abbeys. Dramatic Roman ruins, like Hadrian's Wall, are there for you to behold.

In Scotland, you'll marvel at the wild beauty of the Highlands, and the contrasting quiet charm of lowland valleys. Tour Edinburgh with its gorgeous buildings, and parks where penguins promenade for you. Discover shaggy Highland cattle and observe annual sheepdog competitions. Lodge in quaint country inns, the Gleneagles Hotel or the fabulous Inverlochy Castle. Throughout Scotland, thrill to the bagpipes, pageantry and Highland dances of the Scots!

Dear Mr. Soule:

I found your video tape BYWAYS of ENGLAND on display at a local branch library.

I found it to be very good and interesting but a bit disappointing in that you omitted including a visit to our probable ancestral home of Eckington, England.

George Soule, Mayflower passenger and signer of the Mayflower Compact is believed to have his roots there, but it cannot as yet be proven absolutely.

The village itself is satisfied enough of the fact of it to advertise themselves as the home of Pilgrim George Soule.

We who trace a line of descent from George Soule have a national family organization, Soule Kindred in America, which meets every year in a different city and we publish a quarterly titled Soule Newsletter.

A proven line is not a requirement of membership to join with your "cousins" and begin receiving history and news of Soule's and their activities.

I enclose items concerning our history for your enjoyment and considerations.

Membership dues are $15 a year payable to our Treasurer, Betty Jean Haner, #53 New Shaker Road, Albany, NY 12205.

I hope to see you act upon this information by becoming a member of our active family organization.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Soule:

Thank you for your letter of 14 April. I am delighted you enjoyed my video BYWAYS IN BRITAIN, even though it did not include Eckington. You can certainly understand that in a production of that type we cannot show all that we would like to.

It was fun to read the material on the Soule family, some of which was new to me. I have sent it on to my brother. He is much closer and more concerned with these matters than I am.

Thank you for taking the time to send the information.

Sincerely yours,

" LOST SOULE's REI SCOVERED "

1. It is believed that the above obituary notice concerns the same individual as is underlined in the phone directory listing.
2. Can any of our readers supply further info on the above individual, or any of the other possible George SOULE descendents listed here.
3. Mr. Robert Gere SOULE Jr. here, is not exactly a "Lost Soule" by our definition, because he carried the SOULE surname, To this writers knowledge, SOULE KINDRED in AMERICA probably has little, or no, information on him.

RECORDING OF FAMILY DATA

By Geraldine Soule Schlosser, Soule Kindred Historian

One of the objectives of Soule Kindred is the gathering of information pertaining to the descendants of Pilgrim George Soule. Mayflower Families 3 covers the first 5 generations, to about 1800. Our families did a lot of moving around in the 19th century, and you can help locate migration patterns for family groups. That is why the Family Data Chart is printed in each issue of the Newsletter. Our historian may be able to help you with that "missing link". So please keep the information coming.

We would like to suggest that you begin with your sixth generation ancestor from George Soule (or your earliest Soule ancestor, if you haven't made the connection to George¹). Fill out a form for that ancestor, and then submit forms for each of your ancestors down to yourself. This is especially important if you descend through a female line; Soule women who marry tend to become lost Soules.

We'll give a short explanation of how to fill out the form. Samples were printed in V. 20, #2 and #3-- April and July, if you'd like to refer to those.

(1) The "Generation" space in the upper left corner shows the generation from the immigrant ancestor. Please leave it blank unless you are certain.

(2) In the far upper space on the right for "FAMILY", leave it blank if the surname of "Soule Descendant" is SOULE, SOWLE, or variants, because we'll assign a code number for closely related family groups. If the "Soule Descendant" has a different surname, insert the name in the right upper space.

(3) The next two lines show the ancestors of the "Soule Descendant" back to George Soule¹. Unless you have an approved Mayflower Lineage or other positive proof, we suggest this be left blank.

(4) When writing dates, follow the genealogical style-- first the day in numbers, then the month in letters, and the full year, such as 6 Feb 1833.

(5) When listing children on the reverse side, put in as much information as you can-- such as spouse's parents, if known.

(6) List your name and address as compiler unless someone else gathers the information. We may need to contact the compiler.

(7) It is VERY important to list sources of data; if the information comes from a family Bible or other record, a photocopy of the information should be included. Other sources, such as Vital Records from towns or states, and census should be indicated.

(8) Leave "Verification" blank for our purposes.

(9) Please give as many clues as possible to facilitate further research. If you are uncertain about a date, enter it, but add "circa" or "ca". For questionable place names, add "possibly" or "probably".

Send completed forms to our Historian:

BRADFORD DESCENDANTS CELEBRATE 400TH ANNIVERSARY OF HIS BIRTH

By Marion Vuilleumier

Mayflower Quarterly

FOUR hundred years ago, on March 19, 1589, a child was baptized at the Church of St. Helena in Austerfield, England, who was to become the governor of a colony that partially laid the foundation of the United States of America. The child was William Bradford and the Colony was Plymouth, which he governed close to 30 years.

In March of 1989, 15 descendants of Governor Bradford journeyed to England to visit Austerfield to celebrate this milestone anniversary at the 11th century Anglican church of St. Helena and to visit the other well-known Pilgrim sites.

After traveling about London to see the dock area where the Mayflower was provisioned and the site of the infamous Clink Prison where many Separatists suffered, the group then traveled to Boston, England; it was here the Pilgrims were imprisoned when trying to escape from the country in 1607. The Guild Hall still has those same ancient dank cells.

The highlight of the trip was the weekend in Lincoln, when visits were made to five villages where some of the Pilgrim fathers and mothers originated; Babworth, Scrooby (where the church was formed in 1606), Gainsborough, Sturton-Le-Steeple and, of course, Austerfield.

March 19th, the actual anniversary, came on Palm Sunday, so the Vicar, William Thackray and the Senior Warden, Dennis Cozens had arranged an impressive service in the small historic church which normally seated 80 persons. Because of the large crowd for the festive occasion, the seating was pushed to 120. Special guests included Her Majesty's Lord Lieutenant Colonel J.H. O'Neill; United States Embassy representative, Dr. Ronald Clifton; Dorchester Mayor, R.W. Gilles and the preacher for the day, the Diocese Bishop, The Rt. Reverend Patrick Harris. The English dignitaries were in colorful attire and the American delegation added to the occasion with seven who had brought their Pilgrim costumes.

During the service, Rev. J. Allyn Bradford gave an excerpt from his ancestor's journal Of Plimoth Plantation. Eleanor Driver of the Pilgrim Society presented a commemorative pewter plate. Dr. John Pogue presented a Bradford flag and Ronald Horton, president of the Governor William Bradford Compact, presented a sum of money to start a fund for a Bradford memorial window.

The eventual weekend included pictures in front of the Manor believed to be the birthplace of Governor Bradford, the laying of flowers at the marker at the entrance to the village, a social the evening before and a banquet following the church service.

As the 15 descendants prepared to leave for Cambridge where Elder William Brewster studied, and then home by jet to America; the group mused that their wonderfully warm welcome had been quite a contrast to the feelings accorded their ancestors so many years before.

Lee Fullerton Jan 19, 1906 - March 19, 1990

A great Soule descendant has left us, Lee Fullerton. He passed to his reward on March 19, 1990. I'm sure his mother, Rebecca Jean Soule Fullerton, was right there to welcome him to his eternal home.

I will miss my Uncle Lee, his joking about his big belly and all the popcorn he will eat. The watermelon at our annual family reunion won't be as sweet because Uncle Lee knew just how to find the perfect crisp and extra sweet ones.

Many people will miss his humorous, home-spun articles in "The Farmer" magazine. That was one of his retirement projects. He and Aunt Ester also toured the country many years, picking up choice pieces of wood, dragging them home to his woodshop, and fashioning them into lamps, candlestick holders and whatever, then going to various malls to display their wares. They sold many items under their own label "Fruit of the Lathe."

He also got his high school diploma during this time and was Rice County, MN's first Planning and Zoning Director. He did this all after retiring from the farm.

Most of all, I'll miss his belly-shaking laughter and twinkling eyes after relaying a humorous anecdote.

We will all miss Uncle Lee.

A farmer is close to God's creation

"He has Risen." Those words have thrilled the Christian world for all to have new hope, new life. "He has risen indeed."

My introduction into a church service was right at District 91 School on Mattison Hill Road. Mr. Staff, a traveling minister, would stop. When Mr. Staff came to Mattison Hill to preach, nearly all of the neighborhood came to the schoolhouse.

Everyone walked to the schoolhouse. Mr. Staff's sermons were a plain, direct type of sermon that a little farm boy could understand and enjoy. I as a lad looked forward to his visits.

After about 1918, when we and several of our neighbors bought cars, everyone started going to a church of their choice. We started going to Morristown. I do not recall Mr. Staff coming to School District 91 anymore. I missed his "homey" ways.

In the winter of 1919-20, mother became a victim of the dreaded flu epidemic that followed World War I. There were no antibiotic medications or sulfas. Medical science could do little. Mother left us to be with the Lord she loved in February 1920. I was the only one with her before she left, when she brought me, her 14-year-old son, to a living relationship with the Living Lord. Those were precious moments. From that time on I personally knew He had risen.

In my mind, a farmer is as close to his Lord as anyone can possibly be on this earth. Every time you plant a dry, inert seed in the soil the Lord has provided us with, a miracle takes place.

The moisture in the soil goes into this dry seed, an embryo starts to grow and a new plant starts — a new creation, a new miracle. Why? Because God planned it that way. A farmer is fortunate to see literally millions of these miracles happen each year. Yes, a farmer is close to God and his creation. He cannot help but realize that "He has risen."

Again and again this miracle is repeated as a new crop of lambs, or new litters of baby pigs, or baby calves are born. Did you ever watch an egg as a baby chick tap, tap, taps on the inside of the shell? The shell cracks open and a baby chick emerges. No, it is not fluffy and downy those first few seconds. But give that little fellow a little time. A beautiful creation of our Lord's handiwork.

Yes indeed. "He has risen." What we are doing is celebrating the wonderful event that has given hope, peace, comfort and security to all who believe in his name.

I have had a special song which I have always called "The Farmer's

Reminiscences

By Lee Fullerton

Song." I used to sing it endlessly as I would be tilling the soil. I didn't always follow the printed word that the songwriter put on paper. I would transpose to suit myself. The song: "My God and I, we till these fields together, we walk and talk as good friends always do." And on and on. That is "The Farmer's Song."

After I had my little stroke on Feb. 18, 1963, I couldn't talk for a spell. Can you imagine a Fullerton who couldn't talk? Well, here was one. Then I had to talk slowly, as I slurred certain parts of words. I have never been able to sing more than a line or two, then I have problems. No, I don't complain, no one has ever heard me complain, that I cannot sing. I thank the Lord many times a day that I can talk. I still sing in my heart. I think the Lord must have said, "Lee, you can make enough noise talking." I love good singing to the glory of the Risen Lord." Indeed, "He has risen."

One time when we were living in California, I was going out west of Turlock, to visit a dairy on my regular DHIA work. There was a phenomenon in the western sky the like of which I had never seen before or since. There was a perfect halo around the western sun with a perfect cross formed through the sun, the upright post with the crossarms. The sun was of a different hue than normal, almost an orange color — the perfect cross with the sun in the center with the ring or halo around the entire phenomenon.

By the time I arrived at the dairy I was headed for, the sun had disappeared behind the western or coastal range of mountains. I asked many people about this. No one could tell me the answer. It seemed to bring a professed Christian like myself up short. Indeed, "He has risen" and is with us always.

I always like to tell at least one story. This one is on Mother, Dad and Mr. Staff, the traveling pastor. I'll not guarantee that the story is authentic.

Mr. Staff was coming to preach at District 91 the next Sunday. Mother and Dad, being a good host and hostess, had asked him to have Sunday dinner with us after the service in the schoolhouse.

On Friday, Mother told Dad and me to catch the two biggest young roosters after we were finished with chores and it was dark. Dad said, "Two, Jennie? Won't one be enough?" Mother replied, "There are four of us, Mr. Staff makes five. One will not be enough. Besides, you and Lee both like cold chicken, so catch two."

Dad and I caught the two biggest young spring roosters, nice fellows, and put them in a bran sack. In the morning those two roosters lost their heads, feathers, etc. Mother prepared them for Sunday dinner. Mother had Dad's favorite mashed potatoes, but Mr. Staff loved that spring chicken.

Dad, being a good host, kept passing the chicken platter to Mr. Staff until there was only one wing left. Dad gave me the wing. I felt better.

After dinner Dad wanted to show Mr. Staff his herd of cows. As they were walking toward the barn, the daddy of those two spring roosters flew up on a gate post, flapped his wings proudly and lustily crowed.

Mr. Staff remarked, "My he is sure a proud fellow." Dad replied, "Yes, he should be. Two of his sons just entered the ministry."

Pardon me Lord. I had to tell this one.

"The Lord indeed has risen."

From Howard S. Soule', Oakland, CA

My Mother, Mrs. Addie M. Soulé celebrated her 100th birthday on November 18, 1989. Her three sons, Lee, Stan and Howard decided to celebrate this occasion by having a family get together at a nearby Hotel and invited all the third and fourth generation relatives.

At this celebration ice cream and cake was served. A large birthday cake was prepared by the Claremont Hotel which is located not far from the family home and where the event occurred. Approximately 45 relatives were in attendance at this special get together as well as a professional photographer and videographer.

A complete video was made of the event for future Soulé generations to see. As you can see from the enclosed invitation a brief history of my Mother was given by my brother Lee and old family movies (which were put on video) were shown by my brother Stan. Also enclosed is a photo taken at the event with my Mother (in wheel chair) and behind her Lee on the left, myself in the middle and Stan on the right. The black and white photo's are of my Father and Mother's wedding in 1913 and their 50th Wedding Anniversary in 1963. My sister Lucile Soulé Arnon was not present for the occasion had died in 1986. My father, Mr. Edward L. Soulé, was not present had died in 1971.

The family get together was certainly enjoyed by everyone. A sad note however is that my Mother passed away on January 19 of this year just 2 months after the celebration.
