INTRODUCTION TO SOULE KINDRED

Soule Kindred was formed in 1967 by a group of dedicated people who were interested in preserving and passing information on to future generations. Through the diligence of the first President George Soule and Colonel John Soule, direct descendants of the Mayflower George Soule, a great heritage was found to have been left by our founding fathers. The Kindred is a nonprofit organization incorporated in Massachusetts in 1972.

Through the Soule quarterly publication, Soule Newsletter, information of genealogical value is disseminated to its members. Reading back copies of the Newsletter is like walking through American and European History, after all, Europe is where most of our ancestors lived. Current news items about Kindred members' activities bring "cousin to cousin" closer.

Genealogy records are available through the Kindred historian to assist those interested in tracing their family roots. The Kindred has microfilm records, going back to the Mayflower passenger George Soule, contains hundreds of names.....

Kindred membership lists are published annually, leading you to a whole new world of "cousins."

The annual Soule Family Reunion, held in a different city each year, offers an opportunity to meet your new "cousins" and make long lasting friendships.

There are no restrictive requirements to joining the Kindred. Your name does not have to be Sole, Soule, Sowle, Soules, or even begin with an "S". We have Jones, Abraham, Boyd, Edward;s, Myers, Turner, and many other names in our membership.

If the idea of finding your roots, and meeting new "cousins" appeals to you, we invite you to send in your application and join with us in celebrating our fascinating heritage.

Membership application with check made payable to Soule Kindred should be sent to the Treasurer, Betty-Jean Haner, 53 New ZShaker Rd., Albany, Ny., 12205-3615.

PRESIDENTS PEN

This issue contains your registration information for our Soule Kindred Reunion in St. Augustine, Florida, Aug. 24-28. The Holiday Inn Hotel Reservations are due 30 days prior to arrival. Be sure to use the code SKA (Soule Kindred in America). Automatically the computer system will set up the reservation as part of our group confirming the rates and any other information relating to our Reunion. Send your check for Reunion registration and events directly to me as stated on the form.

St. Augustine, founded on September 8, 1565, is not very old compared with ancient Athens or Rome, but the city is indeed very old if the history of Europe's conquest and colonization of North America is considered, and it is in that perspective that the city's age must be acknowledged. Despite difficult colonial experiences, including starvation, destructive storms and wars, St. Augustine survived to stand in five centuries of United States History. What other city in this country can make such a claim?

As always at our annual business meeting we will be selecting a location for the Reunion in 1995. A letter of invitation to host the 1995 Reunion in your area and sent to any officer will speed up process at the Reunion. The more the better. How great it was a few years ago when we were able to have the location of our Reunion planned two years ahead. Taken from a previous News Letter: "How wonderful it is that we have a reunion every year and move it around the Country. One of the essential purposes of our Kindred Society is to provide an opportunity for persons with proven or suspected lines to George Soule of the Mayflower to meet distant cousins or to receive genealogical assistance in their search to confirm lines".

How many of our Soules have received a letter from Gregory A. Soule of Bath, Ohio. A new book is being published, "The World Book of Soules". Some time ago we were warned about this type of operation that sells little more than a listing of names, addresses and telephone numbers. I did not receive this last letter but Ron Soule forwarded his letter on to me. The letter states that extensive work has been done throughout the world on this enormous project. The next line, Quote-"The first Soule we found came to Plymouth, Mass. in 1620. Her name was Mary"! -Enough said.

The speaker at our banquet this year will be Historian and Author David Nolan. He has gathered many interesting tid-bits of information and for his books he has received the annual Authors Award from the Council for Florida Libraries.

Looking forward for many cousins to meet in St. Augustine.

FAMILY HISTORIAN'S REPORT

by Geraldine Sowle Schlosser

It seems that I must always begin this report with an apology to those of you who have written me and not received a timely reply. Time has a way of getting away from me-- and I seldom accomplish all I intend to do in a day. Perhaps it's age-- but I hate to admit that! I am working at improving.

I continue to index the family group sheets that you send me, but it's a slow process. In doing so, I often refer to the files left by Col. John and Dr. Terry-- and how I wish that I could have a conversation with them. So much knowledge about our family has gone to the grave with them. I am trying to leave a paper trail-- keeping all correspondence both to and from the historian, as well as notes on research that I've done.

There should be some explanation of the several pages of Rhode Island records published in the Winter 1994 Newsletter. Last May Jim and I attended the "Come Home to New England" seminar at the New England Historic Genealogical Society. One of my objectives was to find a father for William Sowle, the Loyalist of Alburg, VT. Since I had a hunch that he probably came from Rhode Island or the Dartmouth/Westport MA area, Jim was helping me by abstracting the Rhode Island records for SOULE. Although I didn't find anything to help in the search for William, I felt that publication in the newsletter might help some of you searching for ancestors in Rhode Island.

We were fortunate to have a visit from George Soule of Carleton College in MN visit us in April. (He spoke at one of our Minneapolis Kindred reunions, and is also a descendant of the William mentioned above.) He was invited to speak as part of the celebration of the Tomah Shakespeare Club on its 100th anniversary. I would welcome visits from other Soule Kindred members, should you be passing this way on vacation. I-94 and I-90 divide at Tomah, so we're easy to find.

I'm looking forward to our reunion in Florida in August. I will come prepared to help with lineages. We haven't decided if we'll drive or fly, so I don't know how much material I'll be able to transport. If there are specific files you would like to see, let me know ahead of time, and I will make copies.

A suggestion from your historian: When you send in news items or clippings to the newsletter, please include the lineage. I sometimes have difficulty finding the right family to enter the information on births, deaths and marriages!

RECORDING OF FAMILY DATA

By Geraldine Soule Schlosser, Soule Kindred Historian

One of the objectives of Soule Kindred is the gathering of information pertaining to the descendants of Pilgrim George Soule. Mayflower Families 3 covers the first 5 generations, to about 1800. Our families did a lot of moving around in the 19th century, and you can help locate migration patterns for family groups. That is why the Family Data Chart is printed in each issue of the Newsletter. Our historian may be able to help you with that "missing link" So please keep the information coming.

We would like to suggest that you begin with your sixth generation ancestor from George Soule (or your earliest Soule ancestor, if you haven't made the connection to George¹). Fill out a form for that ancestor, and then submit forms for each of your ancestors down to yourself. This is especially important if you descend through a female line; Soule women who marry tend to become lost Soules.

We'll give a short explanation of how to fill out the form. Samples were printed in V. 20, #2 and #3-- April and July, if you'd like to refer to those.

(1) The "Generation" space in the upper left corner shows the generation from the immigrant ancestor. Please leave it blank unless you are certain.

(2) In the far upper space on the right for "FAMILY", leave it blank if the surname of "Soule Descendant" is SOULE, SOWLE, or variants, because we'll assign a code number for closely related family groups. If the "Soule Descendant" has a different surname, insert the name in the right upper space

(3) The next two lines show the ancestors of the "Soule Descendant" back to George Soule¹. Unless you have an approved Mayflower Lineage or other positive proof, we suggest this be left blank.

(4) When writing dates, follow the genealogical style-- first the day in numbers, then the month in letters, and the full year, such as 6 Feb 1833.

(5) When listing children on the reverse side, put in as much information as you can-- such as spouse's parents, if known.

(6) List your name and address as compiler unless someone else gathers the information. We may need to contact the compiler.

(7) It is VERY important to list sources of data; if the information comes from a family Bible or other record, a photocopy of the information should be included. Other sources, such as Vital Records from towns or states, and census should be indicated.

(8) Leave "Verification" blank for our purposes.

(9) Please give as many clues as possible to facilitate further research. If you are uncertain about a date, enter it, but add "circa" or "ca". For questionable place names, add "possibly" or "probably".

Send completed forms to;

Who said, "Go West, young man," and why?

Horace Greeley (1811-1872) was a newspaperman of the middle 1800's. Some people thought his articles were too opinionated. But Greeley believed that the news should always tell the whole truth. He wrote and printed articles about things that he believed would help people to make the world better. In the middle 1850's, it was especially hard for young people to find jobs. Greeley believed that young people could build a good life for themselves if they moved to the West. He wrote an article that told poor but hard-working young people to "turn your face to the Great West, and there build up a home and fortune." In later articles, he often suggested to young people to "Go West, young man, and grow up with the country." People were impressed by these articles. But

Greeley knew he could not take all the credit for the idea. He wrote an article explaining that he had gotten the phrase from an 1851 newspaper article by John Babsone Lane Soule. Soule was really the first person who printed the expression, "Go West, young man."

Underline another good title for this story:

Who was Horace Greeley?

Job opportunities in the 1850's

Newspaper reporters

Underline the sentence that tells the main idea of the story:

Horace Greeley was a newspaperman of the middle 1800's who wrote many articles telling young people to move west.

John Babsone Lane Soule was really the first man to use the expression, "Go West, young man."

Many people thought Greeley's articles were too opinionated.

Match the story words with their definitions:

Opinionated

stubbornly holding to personal opinion

Fortune

wealth; riches

Credit

a piece or section in a newspaper, dealing with a single subject

Article

honor; something that adds to one's reputation

T F Horace Greeley was the first to say, "Go West, young man."

T F Horace Greeley believed that there was opportunity in the West.

Check the three that apply:

Horace Greeley felt a newspaper could be used to help people.

moved west then he was young.

wrote articles encouraging young people to move west.

wanted people he didn't like to move west.

was a newspaperman.

EDITOR'S RAMBLINGS

Dear Soule Cousins:

According to President Norman Soule's wonderful letter, it looks like everyone will have a wonderful time in St. Augustine in August. Unfortunately, due to personal reasons, I will not be able to attend this year. I will think of you often during the Soule Kindred Reunion. Enjoy yourselves.

This issue of the Soule Kindred Newsletter is number two. There was not enough news to print a Spring issue. I cannot edit and print this newspaper if I do not receive informative news.

I am still looking for games, puzzles, etc. for our younger Soule cousins. If you come across anything just send it on.

Sincerely,

MILESTONES

LETTERS, WE GET LETTERS

From Bob Soules of Riverside, California

I am not a member of the LDS Family Records in Salt Lake City, but feel that the free family record service they offer should not be over looked by anyone doing genealogy work. Not only is their computer family record program inexpensive, but they provide an opportunity to store ones family records in a permanent form without charge. In addition, once records are on the computer files in Salt Lake they are decimated to hundreds of family centers all over the world. This provides a tracking tool for hundreds of Lost Soules.

From Patricia J. "Pat" Castro of Ramona, California:

I found this item in one of the newspapers that my husband subscribes to. Isn't it interesting how the Soules get around? This one really got lost!!!

Pat is also looking for information on her Great-grandmother who was born in Calais, Washington County, Maine 10 May 1835. Since Calais' records burned in a fire in 1910, can anyone out there in Soule Land help her? Her address is:

612 14th St. #2

Purcell-Soule

Marian Purcell and Darryl Soule were married April 2 in Capetown. The bride, daughter of James Purcell of Vista, attended San Diego State University. She operates the bookstore "Cover to Cover" in Simonstown, South Africa.

The bridegroom, son of Audrey Soule of Muizenberg, attended the University of Capetown, and is owner of the Travel Agency "South Africans Abroad"

The wedding and reception were held in the gardens of the historic country house "Groot Madderghat". The honeymoon included visits to London and Breckenridge, Colorado, highlighted by a reception in their honor at the Shadowridge Country Club in Vista, where the bride wore her white satin and organza wedding gown to the delight of those not attending the Capetown wedding.

The couple will make their home in Glancairn, False Bay, South Africa.

THE SANDIEGO UNION
TRIBUNE

SUN. 5/22/94

Dear Cousins:

I would like to take this opportunity to introduce myself to the rest of my Soule family. My name is Cheri Soule Forster. I live in Macomb Township, Michigan with my husband, Pete and two daughters, Candice (11), and Danielle (6). My husband is a high school teacher and I home school Candice and Danielle. I worked as a model in the Detroit area for about 12 years. (1976-1988).

I started digging into my family history a few years ago and eventually it led me to Plymouth, Ma. My father told me his grandfather's name (William) and his great grandfather's name (Alexander). William lived to be 94 and Alexander lived to be 97. My father remembers going to visit his great grandfather when he was a child. He was eleven years old when Alexander died.

While in Plymouth, I found a book entitled, "Mayflower Families" (five generations.) It started with Pilgrim George Soule but I didn't know where to go from there. It wasn't until I went to Tyre, Michigan and visited the grave of Alexander that it all came together. Near his grave were the headstones of his parents. That was the missing link I had needed to connect the information in the book to the information I already knew. His father's name was Samuel White Soule. I found (Samuel White Soule) in the Mayflower Families. I was told that Alexander's parents were buried in Canada but he brought their headstones with him when he came to Michigan and placed them near his plot.

My Genealogy:

George Soule(1), John Soule(2), Aaron(3), Aaron(4), Captain John Soule(5), Samuel White(6), Alexander(7), William A.(8), Raymond Edward(9), Gerald Raymond(10), Cheri Soule Forster(11)

It has been nice getting acquainted.

May God Bless All of My Soule Cousins!!!!

THOUGHTS WHILE WATCHING A MEMORIAL PARADE

The "vets" of many wars
Have passed this way,
Then passed away
In their turn.

Now it's the turn
Of those who survive
The Victory of '45
When all were young and alive

Except for those who repose
In the soil they freed
In some final, flaming deed
O which we here take heed.

Normandy, New Guinea, Germany,
Salerno, Anzio, Cassino,
Iwo Jima, Tarawa, Okinawa,
Salpan, Oran, Bataan.

On land, above the land
On the sea, below the sea,
And in the wild blue yonder,
Our young men we did squander.

Now another national treasure
Is slowly slipping away
As the sand falls in the glass,
Grain by grain, every day.

Once vigorous men and women
now called "Senior Citizens"
"antiques" and "freaks"
By the latest generation.

And so they came back in '45 and '46
To go to college, to marry,
To produce another generation
So different from their own.

Let us pray that their children
Will be a blessed blend of that which is best
In both generations.

Love of country,
Respect for women
Self-discipline.
Toleranc/

So into the ranks they return,
To line-up once again
With comrades of old,
Free of fear, free of pain.

MARCH ON !!!!!!!

Who have no conception
Of the Great Depression
Or the conflagration
Called World War Two.

Fifteen years of privation and desperation
All the rest is decoration
To this generation.

Few of the young realize their worth
As the last of the men and women of this special group
Are lowered into the earth.

Worth beyond measure tho not in treasure as commonly thought,
But as symbols of things
Now vainly sought.

Sentimental, romantic;
They have a notion of love
Naive and charming,
Completely dis-arming

To the pornographers
And their photographers
In movies, mags, and TV for all to see.

The men of that era went off to war
Promising their women
"I'll be with you in apple-blossom time.
I'll be with you to change your name to mine."

Such "corn" later changed to "porn"
By the merchants of sleaze
Who have grown affluent
On their own effluent.

This is not a parade to glorify war.
This is a parade in memory of them.

For no one is truly dead
O whom it can still be said
"I remember him,
"I remember her."

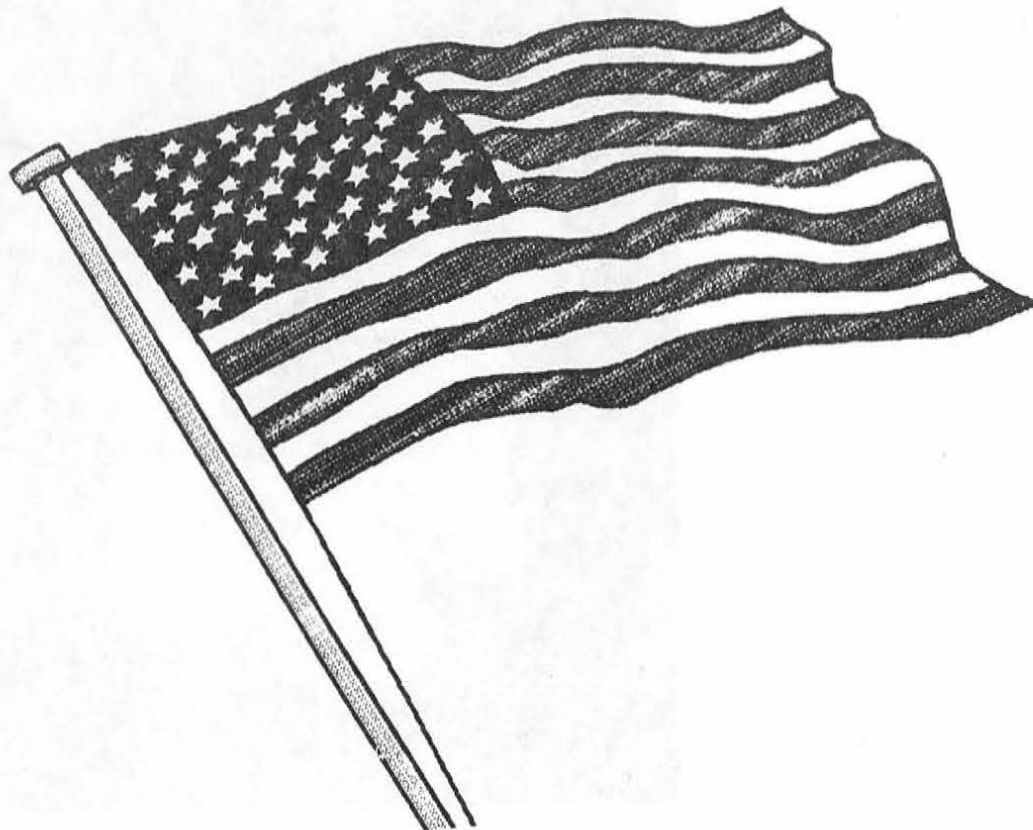

Patriotic, too.
But - primitively so.
They would gladly flog.
Any who abuse the flag.

That flag which they have seen
Flying over many a brave ship
Lying over many a slain comrade.
Sighing over many a silent grave.

Still do they "brace" at the sound of "colors" sounded by bugles
Wherever the flag flies
Above American eyes.

The war gave them the right
To travel when they might
They got to see the world,
But thru a rifle's sights.

Or from a bombers' heights
Or thru the darkest nights of naval fights.
And othe deadly rites.

Jeanette Taylor, editor
Soule Newsletter
RR#1, Box 149
Deer Islé, ME 14627

Dear Ms. Taylor:

In the Winter 1994 edition of the Soule Newsletter the name Soule and its variations were abstracted from the Arnold books of Rhode Island Records. I used his records and also the town records themselves in the vault at Westerly, RI when I researched the Gavitt family genealogy. I discovered there is a Soule line early in the family in Westerly. I wrote two books about the family, a history 1440-1850 in 1985 and a genealogy in 1992.

DESCENDENTS OF GEORGE SOULE IN RHODE ISLAND

The Gavitt family began in America when Philip arrived in 1676 and settled first in Marblehead, MA and soon moved to Salem. His first son, Ezekiel, moved to Westerly RI in 1700. Ezekiel's son, Samuel, married in Westerly RI., Mary Wilcox of the Soule line. The date of the marriage is not known but their first child was born 11 Feb. 1738. [See Mayflower Families (MF) III, p. 265.] The marriage probably was, then, about 1737. Samuel was the third generation Gavitt in America.

In the past genealogy most often concentrated on the male line, following the family name. Here is an example drawn from the female line. These descendents of George Soule in Rhode Island are descended from George Soule's daughter, Susanna, his granddaughter, also a Susanna, his great granddaughter, Dinah, and his great-great granddaughter Mary who married Samuel (MF III p. 266).

Mary's sister, Hannah, married Samuel's brother, Hezekiah (MF III p. 266). Two sisters married two brothers. According to the Maryflower Families the date of Hannah's marriage to Hezekiah Gavitt is unknown and the place probably was Westerly. However, the records in Charlestown, RI. (next to Westerly) give the date as 17 Nov 1748 in Charlestown (Charlestown Town Records 1738-1757).

Samuel Gavitt was the son of Ezekiel and Hannah (Wilcox) Gavitt. According to the The Narragansett Historical Register, January 1891, his mother, Hannah Wilcox, was a descendent of George Soule. This is not substantiated and may have been confused at that time with their son Samuel's marriage to Mary (Wilcox) or their son Hezekiah's marriage to Hannah (Wilcox). In the town of Westerly records of 21 Dec. 1716 Ezekiel Gavitt refers to his mother-in-law as Tamson Willcocks.

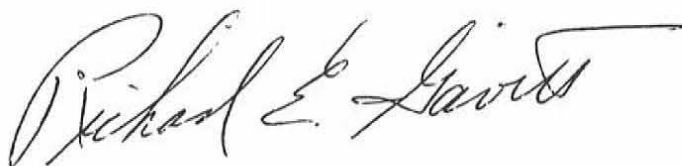

THE LINE OF DESCENT FROM GEORGE SOULE TO MARY WILCOX GAVITT

1. George Soule, b. England between 1593 and 1600, d. Duxbury MA before 22 Jan 1679, m. Plymouth before 1626 Mary Bucket or Becket (MR III p. 3). He arrived in Plymouth 1620 aboard The Mayflower.
2. Susanna, daughter George and Mary Soule, b. prob Duxbury c. 1642, m. at unknown date and place Francis West or Wast, and probably d. Kingstown (later North Kingstown) RI in 1684
3. Susanna, daughter of Francis and Susanna West, b. N. Kingston, RI, c. 1666, m. in Kingston RI 24 March 1691 Moses Barber as his second wife. Her brother Francis and sister Martha also lived in the Kingston RI area and her brother Clement lived briefly in Charlestown RI.
4. Dinah, daughter of Moses and Susanna Barber, b. Kingston RI 5 Jan 1692/93, m. Westerly RI 14 June 1716 Capt. Edward Wilcox. She d. prob. Charlestown RI before 1774.
5. Mary, daughter of Edward and Dinah Wilcox, b. Westerly RI., 4 Oct. 1717, m. Westerly at a date unknown Capt. Samuel Gavitt, son of Ezekiel and Hannah (Wilcox) Gavitt, b. Westerly 3 May 1712, d. c. 1757 (inventory dated 27 June 1757) Mary d. Westerly by 23 June 1758 [perhaps of the small pox epidemic in Westerly at that time]. She is listed as a widow by the date of the inventory.

THE LINE OF DESCENT FROM MARY (WILCOX) GAVITT
TO RICHARD E. GAVITT

6. Samuel Gavitt, son of Samuel and Mary (Wilcox) Gavitt, b. Westerly RI 8 Sept 1743, m. N. Kingston 27 or 29 Nov. 1766 Ruth Bates b. 7 Dec. 1740.
7. Arnold Gavitt, son of Samuel and Ruth (Bates) Gavitt, b. 9 Jan 1787, m. S. Kingston, Mercy Rodman before 1806 (Beaman, Rhode Island Records, 1B:306).
8. Reuben Gavitt, son of Arnold and Ruth (Bates) Gavitt, b. S. Kingston, RI 1805, d. Peacedale (village near Westerly) RI 30 Nov. 1849 (Buried in Peacedale Historic Cemetery #70, gravestone still standing), m. Mary Tourgee (see Rhode Island Roots 13:3 p. 46), S. Kingston c. 1800. She daughter of William and Martha (Gould) Tourgee, (possibly descended from early Huguenot settlers in Frenchtown RI).

9. Edward Arnold Gavitt, son of Reuben and Mary (Tourgee), b. S. Kingston 10 June 1838, m. S. Kingston (as his third wife) Jessie Fremont Cooke 26 Oct 1882. She dau. of Alfred and Anstress (Braman) Cooke.
10. William Alfred Gavitt, son of Edward Arnold and Jessie Fremont (Cooke) b. Peacedale RI 12 Dec. 1892, m. New Britain, CT. as his second wife Agnes Carlson 23 June 1923.
11. Richard Edward Gavitt, son of William and Agnes (Carlson) Gavitt, b. New Britain, CT. 18 May 1927. Living 1994 Bristol, CT. . Author of this article.

FURTHER ON BENJAMIN SOULE⁵ (MF 546)

by Wilbur H. and Irma C. Somerton*

We have in our possession a letter written by Matilda Soule to Peter and Mary Soule, dated 8th of 9th mo., 1842 which helps clear up some of the uncertainties expressed in Mayflower Families Through Five Generations Volume Three - George Soule, (MF) regarding the children of Benjamin Soule⁵. (See copy of original letter and transcription attached.) This is but one of 23 family letters written between 1838 and 1894 which have been passed down to family members.

Matilda Soule is the Great Granddaughter of Benjamin Soule⁵, Granddaughter of Jonathan⁶ and daughter of Benjamin, Jr.⁷ and (2) Mahala (Collins) Soule. (See Soule Kindred Newsletter, Vol. VIII, No. 2, April, 1974.) Jonathan is the one confirmed child of Benjamin according to (MF). In the letter Matilda refers to Uncles Jonathan, Absolom(y) and George and the letter is to Uncle Peter and Aunt Mary (Lake). (See listing of Jonathan's children attached.) She also refers to cousin Sarah, daughter of Peter and Mary Soule (also see listing attached).

In her letter, Matilda refers to her grandfather's sister Martha Hallock of Peru, as being older than Grandfather (Jonathan). Also she mentions that Martha's sister Ruth is older than Martha. Furthermore, in Friends Marriage Register (see excerpt attached) it notes that Martha Ricketson, daughter of Benjamin and Elizabeth Sowle, married Peter Hallock on 30th day of first month, 1833. This was, of course, their second marriages. It is noted in William Ricketson and His Descendents that Martha (Soule) Ricketson married a second time, after she was seventy years old, to Peter Hallock. Note also that in the Friends Marriage Register, Martha's sister, Ruth (Soule) Banker, signed as a witness to the marriage.

Combining the above information with that in (MF) we come up with the following:

Benjamin Soule⁵ b. Dartmouth, Mass. 12 Aug. 1728; d. Dutchess County, N.Y. aft. 1779;
 m. bef. 1746 (1) Abigail Howland; b. 31 July, 1731; d. bef. 21-12-51
 Isaac b. Dutchess Co., 20 Oct., 1746
 George b. Dutchess Co., 1748
 Ebenezer b. Dutchess Co., 14 May, 1750
 m. bef. 1755 (2) Elizabeth Davis; b. 21 July, 1730; d. ca. 1810
 Ruth b. Dutchess Co. ca. 1755; d. Feb. 1847(6)
 Martha b. Dutchess Co. 16 May, 1756; d. aft. 1833
 Jonathan b. Dutchess Co. 23 June, 1761; d. Duanesburg, N.Y., ca. 1833.

Affectionate Uncle

Having an opportunity to send a letter by private conveyance I thought best to improve it. We are all enjoying pretty good health at present and hope these few lines may find you enjoying the same great blessing; Father and mother were at Uncle Jonathan's last first day he and his family were as well as usual. Uncle Phobos' folks were well the last we heard from them they live about two miles distance from here, Uncle George's two girls Liana and Phoebe are as well as usual Diana lives but a short distance from here. Rachel Perry lives at Uncle Jonathan's now. The rest of our connections are well as far as we know. Father received a letter yesterday from Grandfather's sister Martha Hallock who is older than Grandfather was she states that she is not able to attend meetings generally twice a week accompanied by her

Affectionate Uncle and Aunt:

Having an opportunity to send a letter by private conveyance, I thought best to improve it. We are all enjoying pretty good health at present and hope these few lines may find you enjoying the same great blessing. Father and Mother were at Uncle Jonathan's last first day and he and his family were as well as usual. Uncle Abslomy's folks were well the last time we heard from them. Uncle George's two girls, Diana and Phebe Anny, are as well as usual. Diana lives but a short distance from here. Phebe Anny lives at Uncle Jonathan's now. The rest of our connections are well as far as we know. Father received a letter yesterday from Grandfather's sister Martha Hallock at Peru. She is older than Grandfather was. She states that she is able to attend meeting generally twice a week accompanied by her husband. She says in her letter that her sister Ruth was there a short time since and spent several weeks at their house. She is a widow and lives about eight miles from their house with one of her sons and she is still older than herself.

Please write and inform us where Sarah now lives and where to direct a letter to her. I must now conclude. Please send my love to all inquiring friends.

I remain your well-wishing niece, Matilda Soule.

SUGGESTIONS AND ITEMS TO CONSIDER IN WRITING YOUR PERSONAL HISTORY

1. Your birth: when, where, parents, surrounding circumstances and conditions.
2. Your childhood: health, diseases, accidents, playmates, trips, associations with your brothers and sisters, unusual happenings, visitors in your home, visits to grandparents, relatives you remember, religion in your home, financial conditions of parents.
3. Your brothers and sisters: names, date of birth, place of birth, accomplishments, names of spouses, date and place of marriage, their children.
4. Your school days: schools attended, teachers, courses studied, special activities, associates, achievements, socials, report cards, humorous situations, who or what influenced you to take certain courses or do things you might not otherwise have done.
5. Your activities before, after and in between school sessions: vacations, jobs, attendance at church, other church functions, scouting, sports, tasks at home, fun and funny situations.
6. Your courtship and marriage: meeting your spouse, special dates, how the question was popped, marriage plans, the wedding, parties and receptions, gifts, honeymoon, meeting your in-laws, what influenced you most in your choice of spouse.
7. Settling down to married life: your new home, starting housekeeping, bride's biscuits, spats and adjustments, a growing love, making ends meet, joys and sorrows, your mother-in-law, other in-laws.
8. Your vocation: training for your job, promotions, companies you worked for, salaries, associates, achievements, your own business.
9. Your children: names, dates and places of birth, health of mother before and after, how father fared, characteristics, habits, smart sayings and doings, growing up, accomplishments, schooling, marriage, vocations, sicknesses, accidents, operations.
10. Your civic and political activities: positions held, services rendered, clubs, fraternities and lodges you have joined. War or military service.
11. Your church activities: as a young person, through adolescence, churches attended, church positions, church associates, church certificates, answers to prayers, necessity and power of love.
12. Your avocations: sports, home hobbies, dramatic and musical activities, reading habits, genealogy, travels, favorite songs, movies, books, writers, poems, etc.
13. Special celebrations or holidays you remember: Easter, Christmas, national and local holidays, vacations.
14. Your plans and hopes for the future.
15. Your ancestors: your impressions of those you knew personally, a general sketch of those you did not know; father, mother, grandparents, great grandparents, other relatives.
16. Your encouragement and counsel to your descendants: carrying on family traditions and activities; their obligations to their country, church and family; your suggestions to your progeny and others on honesty, humility, health, diligence, perseverance, thrift, loyalty, kindness, reverence, the Bible and other religious and edifying books; service to fellowmen; your belief regarding God, etc.

Never underestimate the effect you may have on unborn generations in helping them through the trials and tribulations of life by the written word of advice you leave your children, grandchildren, etc. If you would like them to live upright honest lives, give them the benefit of your experiences. Job, of the Old Testament, lamented the fact that his words were not written when he said, "Oh that my words were now written! Oh that they were printed in a book! That they were graven with an iron pen and lead in the rock forever!" (Job, 19-23) But they were written, and he then gave his beautiful testimony of the Redeemer which has been used countless times as the text of sermons in both the Jewish and the Christian worlds. Your communications to your descendants must be written. They will also appreciate your life story as a precious treasure, and bless you all their days for it.
17. Hints on writing your life story: tell your story plainly and with directness; write truthfully of uplifting, refined and honorable occurrences and experiences. Humor helps to make for easier reading. If you can give the whys of your decisions and changes in activities it may help others. Illustrate with as many pictures as possible. Make several copies, or better still, mimeograph or print and give one to each of your children and grandchildren. Place copies in local and national libraries and/or historical societies.

SOULE KINDRED INDEXES AVAILABLE

A third index has been completed for about 1,000 persons who are descendants but do not have the name Soule or other spellings. This Surname Index was created primarily from lineages submitted recently by members of Soule Kindred. It should be used with our earlier indexes and the 1992 supplement published in the Soule Kindred Newsletter Summer edition 1992.

Also available are copies of the original index created by Dr. Milton Terry listing more than 7,000 individuals with the name Soule, including codes for the source of information and a numbering system for tracing lineage of many. That index includes the names of the spouse of about 5,000 of the individuals.

Those spouse names have been indexed in alphabetic order with the name and code number of the individual in the original Terry index. However, you must have the Terry index to use the spouse index.

The cost of each of the three indexes is a standard $10.00, including mailing.
