1999 Scholarship Applications

Our Scholarship Chairman, Betty-Jean Haner, is touring the United Kingdom June 16 - July 12. Any George Soule descendant wishing to apply whose formal application has not yet been filed should telephone Betty-Jean at 518 869 8368 soon after July 12.

Lanark, IL Annual Reunion

Two months in advance of our August 11-14 annual reunion in Lanark, IL, there are already 26 early registrations.

Developing friendships with other George Soule descendants is an objective, starting with the Wednesday evening reception and Dutch Treat Dinner.

Two days of bus tours highlighting the history of Pilgrim descendants in the Northwest Territory are scheduled for Thursday and Friday, with business meetings and social gatherings on Saturday.

Host Norman Standish reports that the Saturday evening banquet will be a mid-western buffet in Lanark's Heritage Center.

If you want to attend but can't find program details and registration forms in the April Newsletter, telephone 800 468 2307. Or go to our web site at: www.soulekindred.org/home

Annual Meetings in Retrospect

Geographic variety in Kindred annual meeting sites is illustrated by the following list of locations 1987 to 1999: Kingston MA; Seattle, WA; DesMoines, IA; Montreal, Canada; Annapolis, MD; Reno, Nevada; Plymouth, MA; St. Augustine, FL; Burlington, VT; Plymouth, MA; Madison, Indiana; Vero Beach, FL; Lanark, IL.

During that period 40 members held leadership positions as directors, officers or activity administrators. Eight of the 38 bore the surname Soule or a variation.

Year 2000 Annual Meeting

At least two invitations to host our next annual meeting are expected to be extended at the August 14 business meeting in Lanark, IL: one from members in the Ventura, CA area and the other from members proposing a Plymouth, MA site.

Mayflower Families - George Soule

Researchers of the General Society of Mayflower Descendants are at work on two future editions of their 1995 pink paperback, second edition, on four generations of descendants of George Soule.

Targeted for publication in 1999 is an update of the current pink edition with many corrections and additions. Also in research at present is a five generation volume to be printed with a Silver cover with a target date of 2000.

The current pink edition was preceded by the Mayflower Society's first Silver covered volume of 1980 presenting five generations originally compiled by Soule Kindred genealogists John E. Soule and Milton Terry.

Both four and five generation editions list children who constitute the fifth or sixth generation.

Similar volumes are published by the Mayflower Society on most of the 1820 settlers. The ongoing Five Generations Project is under the direction of Mrs. Edith Bates Thomas of Fremont, CA.

The current pink edition is very reasonably priced at $8 and is available from Mayflower Families, P.O. Box 3297, Plymouth, MA 02361. Shipping cost for one copy is $3. MA residents add 5% tax.

Retirement of Kindred Newsletter Indexer

After 10 years as Indexer of the Soule Newsletter and keeper and improver of the Milton Terry index of George Soule descendants, Jim Schlosser is retiring as with wife Geraldine he moves to Milwaukee from Tomah, WI.

The Newsletter index prepared by Jim has been published annually. Its length has been growing rapidly. Jim estimates that the January 1999 index published in its past format would take about 25 pages. He suggests that reevaluation of its worth, redefinition of indexing standards, and possibly production in another media such as floppy disks.

Jim's replacement should probably be a four or five person committee, one as chairman to set standards and coordinate, the others to index one Newsletter each year. Volunteers please contact me! Users of the index, please let me know whether you think it is worth the work involved.

The Milton Terry index was the product of this lifetime Soule genealogist and furnished the basic data for the first Silver Mayflower Society edition of Five Generations of George Soule descendants. After Mr. Terry's death, Kindred co-founder George Standish Soule found a tattered copy of that hand-written index and made several copies. Eventually, Jim digitized the list, producing a data base of 7,000 male descendants and 5,000 of their wives. Geraldine added about 2,000 spouses with other surnames. The three groups were merged for search by Mr. Terry's arithmetic numbering system and printed copies offered to interested searchers for a modest fee.

Like the recent proposals of Historian Jack Sowles for a family researchers network to produce a varied data bank, a practical ultimate goal needs defining after researching (a) potential sources of commercial as well as volunteer implementation, (b) current or in progress competitive data banks, (c) costs and financial support sources. Do we have a member with experience in producing genealogy CDs or wanting to learn this field? If so, please let me know!

Editor's Corner

Summertime will be in full swing by the time this edition of the Newsletter reaches your mail box. Hard to believe the year is already a little more than half over!

Hopefully a number of the Kindred can make this year's reunion in Lanark, Illinois. Detailed information was presented in last quarter's Newsletter. If you want more up-to-date information or did not get that edition, please contact this year's host, Norman Standish. His contact information is on the inside cover of this Newsletter. There is also a notation of the reunion in the most recent edition of The Mayflower Quarterly for those who receive it.

As always, thank you to all who have contributed items for inclusion in the Newsletter. Please keep the pictures and the information flowing. As it is, I have had to hold several items over until next quarter, but I'd rather have a back-log than too little to work with.

Best regards to one and all.

SHARE YOUR FAMILY WITH EVERYONE

My own research difficulties, with my fathers side of the family have prompted me to write to the kindred, with the hope that this letter may help someone to avoid the same mistake, which I have encountered. My parents divorced when I was quite young, and as a result I never knew my father. At the time they were living in Oakland, CA. after which my mother returned to her family home in Riverside, CA. Several years ago I started my family research, and found my fathers social security record through the LDS family History center. I discovered that he was buried in San Diego, Ca., less than 100 miles from Riverside. I researched the SD obituary records and learned that he had worked at the navy yards for 50 years and also that his second wife was also buried in SD. I was able to secure a copy of his birth certificate, showing that his father Arthur H. Soules was born in Dowagaic, MI in 1865, and that his mother, Nellie E. Draper was born in Cofax, Missouri in 1872. The disappointing aspect of all this is that my fathers family lived less than 100 miles away all of my adult life, and no contact was ever attempted. In addition, my fathers birth certificate was filed late by his mother, Nellie Draper Soules, when she was also residing in San Diego. Think how much easier my family research would be if I had known any of them especially my grandmother.

The whole point is, make a record of your families's genealogy and share it with family members. Use the LDS family history center to make a permanent record for safe keeping. This is an invaluable service offered, without charge, to any one, and accessible to everyone. Any local LDS family history center can assist you on how to submit your records. Last, but not least, give a membership in the Soule's kindred to family members, especially the young ones. The information in the quarterly newsletters is a walk through history, and could easily spark an interest in your familys's genealogy.

Errata:

Re: Error on pg 69 of April 1999 Soule Newsletter. (from Laura E. Vale) Sylveanus Byron Ewers, Jr passed away 7 Dec 1998 at his home at Six Lakes, Michigan. He was 10th generation from the Mayflower George Soule. Sorry if my handwriting was to blame for the misspellings.

Asa T. Soule of Kansas

From the September 1998 book, "Shoot from the Lip: The Lives, Legends, and Lies of the Three Guardsmen of Oklahoma and U.S. Marshall Nix" by Nancy B. Samuelson, Shooting Star Press, Eastford, CT 06242, Chapter 4, Page 40 - "Bill Tilghman: Buffalo Hunter, Saloon Keeper, Lawman, Quasi-Lawman" -

"Tilghman's final foray into law enforcement in Kansas is well known and has been discussed in many books. This venture involved another county seat war, and the activity was quasi-legal at best. This incident occurred during the Gray County dispute between the towns of Cimarron and Ingalls. Asa T. Soule, a millionaire who had acquired his fortune by selling a patent medicine called Hop Bitters, promoted Ingalls for the county seat. Other parties wanted Cimarron to claim the honor.

"Cimarron won the election but Soule charged fraud and obtained a court order to prevent certification of the vote. This state of affairs dragged on for over a year with several skirmishes both in and out of the courtroom.

"The Soule group hired a group of mercenaries, including Bill Tilghman and Jim Masterson (Bat's brother), to raid the Gray County Courthouse in Cimarron and steal the court records. Tilghman, Masterson and company made the raid on Sunday morning, January 12, 1889. They were successful in escaping with the records, but one citizen of Cimarron was killed and several people were wounded in the fray."

Past Pages

Editor's Note: The following information was originally published in the October 1969 (Vol. III, No. 4) Soule Kindred Newsletter, pp. 139-154. I have chosen to re-publish it here for several reasons. One is that it is now 130 years this month (July) since the trans-Atlantic cable landing on the beach at Duxbury. Also, many who are now members of the Kindred have not seen these pages before, so I thought it might be of both historic and genealogical interest to a number of us. Lastly, and in regard to that last statement, it was by finding this information that I was able, after more than twenty years of searching, finally able to locate the marriage record of my great-grandparents, Fernando Soule and Millie Bradford. By reading this, I hope someone of you has a similar success.

In re-publishing this piece, I have as scrupulously as possible maintained everything as it was first presented. (For instance, # 27 Micah A. Soule's birth date was presented as 181__.) Therefore, things are as they were in the original article, obvious misspellings, mistypings, and all.

Since it has been 30 years since this article first appeared, there has obviously been much in the way of research that would update these family histories. I would invite folks to send updated information that we might publish in the Newsletter, including pictures if they are available for any of these people.

If you do send updated information, a reminder seems in order. Some of our kindred members have recently and correctly indicated that those who are currently living may wish to withhold information on themselves and other living relatives. In the wrong hands, names and birth dates and the like can be misused for mischievous purposes.

CABLE LANDS IN DUXBURY!

Special to SOULE NEWSLETTER

Duxbury, Mass., July 23, 1869. A momentous and exciting event this hot summer afternoon brought practically all townspeople to the beach. The American end of the 3335-mile French Atlantic Cable, just completed from Brest, France by the cable ship CHILTERN was brought ashore. Gentlemen in striped pants and frock coats, their top hats jammed down on their heads, waded into the sea and laid hold of the hawser attached to the cable, heaving with other townsmen, the sailors and the boys to haul it ashore. The long wet snake was inched up and over Rouse's Hummock to the Cable House beyond the dunes, over the edge of Duxbury Marsh. A committee of townspeople has invited the Governor and other dignitaries to a PUBLIC FESTIVAL to be held on the twenty-seventh instant to celebrate the event. Our public spirited citizens envision a new era of prominence for Duxbury and perhaps even some prosperity, unfortunately absent since the local shipyards closed. Of course, with the large crowd watching the cable land, it was impossible to recognize and remember everyone but many Soule kinfolk were there, including Nathan Soule, the town's venerable pump and block maker and probably the oldest member of the family in Duxbury who escorted his frail wife, Miss Bethia, and their two daughters; the widows Salumith W., Deborah and Lydia Soule in their respective carriages; shoemaker Joseph A. Soule with his comely Irish wife and their wide-eyed children, George and Mary Ann plus tiny new-born Joseph; and then there were Thomas, Judith and Stephen Soule, the latter home briefly from his first trip to sea, near their mother. Maria Soule, the town's highly competent dressmaker; widow Elizabeth with her fifteen year old daughter just learning the art of dressmaking, and sad faced Charles Soule, twice widowed and childless, were also there. Popular Harvey Soule, whose appointment as the Assistant Marshal for the forthcoming 1870 United States Census has just been announced, was there with his wife Susan and their excited boys, Otis and Harvey A.; so was farmer Lot Soule, his wife Elizabeth and her constant companion Abbie; also, farmer Enoch Soule, his wife Zilpha S., their young son John and Zilpha's sister Sarah Hunt. Shipwright Thomas Soule with his sons Eugene T. and Albert helped with the cable while wife Caoline and daughter Isabel restrained excited young son Freddie. Farmer Micah A. Soule also helped pull the cable ashore with sons John A., Edward F., Micah S. and Arthur W. while his wife Sarah B. and daughters Lydia P., Lucy B. and Mabel P. looked on. Marcellus Soule, recently returned to Duxbury from Boston was at sea but his wife Ellen was at the beach. Fisherman Edwin A. Soule, back in town with a good catch of fish, hauled on the cable while his wife Mary looked after daughters Clara J. and Anna C. Farmer Daniel Lucius Soule also helped on the cable while wife Rowena watched sons Eden W. and William K. and daughter Lizzie P. Shoemaker Oscar H. was at the cable while wife Sarah had her hands full trying to restrain eager son Aubrey M., lively Fernando B. and baby Percy B. Offering another pair of hands on the cable was shoe maker Samuel P. Soule while wife Louisa A. with daughters Hannah P. and Carrie L. watched. Last but not least was eligible bachelor Simeon Soule 3rd who tipped his hat and bowed right and left as he escorted his mother Patience to a good viewing point.

This family removed from Duxbury to Waldoboro in the late 1760s with Jabez Cole (Mayflower Quarterly 28:3:18 - May 1863). During the Revolution, in addition to being captain of the patriot guard boat "Tory Scourge" (approved by DAR on basis of pension application of Abel Cole of Waldoboro) he was involved in other activities which established him as a staunch friend of liberty (Eaton's "Annals of Warren"). Sarah (Southworth) Soule is also a descendant of Mayflower passenger John Alden by two lines - one in the 5th Generation and the other in the 6th Generation. 10. Josiah⁵ Soule (Micah⁴, Josiah³, John², George¹) was born at Duxbury, Plymouth County, Massachusetts on/in 1743 (baptized 21 Mar 1743) and died there 12 Aug 1806, married at Duxbury on 28 Nov 1782 to Alice⁶ (sometimes called Olive), daughter of Samuel & Mehitable (White) Soule, born at Duxbury 3 May 1763. After her husband's death, she remarried at Duxbury on 29 Dec 1807 to John Hatch and apparently left Duxbury as we have been unable to find the date and place of her death. Josiah Soule served variously in the American Revolution having first marched on the alarm of 19 Apr 1775 as a private in Capt. Benjamin Wadsworth's company (2nd Duxbury) of militia in Col. James Warren's Plymouth County regiment of militia for which he received credit for 3-days service (Massachusetts Soldiers & Sailors of the Revolution 14:652), also marched 10 Dec 1776 to Bristol, Rhode Island, with 15-days service in 2nd Duxbury Company of militia commanded by Lieut. Nathan Samson in Colonel Thomas Lothrop's regiment (ibid). He again enlisted 10 Nov 1777 as a private in Captain Ebenezer Brook's regiment of guards and served at Cambridge for 25-days before deserting on 5 Dec 1777 (MS&SR 14:652). He was subsequently on the pay roll of 6-months men raised by the Town of Plymouth for service in the Continental Army during 1780 but was again reported to have deserted (MS&SR 14:648). Finally, he gave a receipt dated Rochester 25 May 1781 for bounties received to serve in the Continental Army for 3-years agreeable to the Resolve of 2 Dec 1780 (MS&SR 14:634). The children of Josiah & Alice (Soule) Soule, all born in Duxbury, were:

11. James⁵ Soule (Joseph⁴, Joshua³, John², George¹) was born at Duxbury, Plymouth County, Massachusetts on 12 Apr 1747 and died there 29 or 30 Aug 1794, married at Duxbury on 17 Jan 1773 (dupl. 1772) to Abigail (Seaver) Bosworth, daughter of Joshua Seaver and widow of Benjamin Bosworth, born at Marshfield (supposedly) in Jan 1744 and died at Duxbury on 26 Aug 1832 aged 88 years. Their children, all born at Duxbury, were:

12. Ezekiel⁵ Soule (Joseph⁴, Joshua³, John², George¹) was born at Duxbury, Plymouth County, Massachusetts on 16 Feb 1752, was baptized in Duxbury in Aug 1753 and died there 3 Nov 1843 aged 94, married at Duxbury on 7 Jan (pos 7 Feb) 1777 to Clynthia Wadsworth, daughter of Wait & Abigail (Bradford) Wadsworth, born at Duxbury on 25 Mar 1756 and died there 28 Aug 1827 aged 71. Ezekiel Soule served in the American Revolution having marched on the first alarm of 19 Apr 1775 (service 2-days) as a private in Capt. Samuel Bradford's (1st Duxbury) company of Colonel James Warren's (Plymouth County) regiment of militia; also served as a corporal in Capt. Calvin Partridge's company of Colonel John Cushing's regiment, drafted 23 Sep 1776 and served 1 month 28 days after marching to Rhode Island; also in Capt. Bildad Arnold's company of Colonel Thomas Lothrop's (Plymouth County) regiment serving 11-days on alarm to Rhode Island 10 Dec 1776 (Massachusetts Soldiers & Sailors of the Revolution 14:647). The children of Ezekiel & Clynthia (Wadsworth) Soule, all born at Duxbury, were:

13. William J.⁵ Soule (Joseph⁴, Joshua³, John², George¹) was born at Duxbury, Plymouth County, Massachusetts on 25 Dec 1759 (although church records show he was baptized 7 May 1758) and died there 7 Jan 1820 (possibly 1826), married at Duxbury on 15 Apr 1784 to Priscilla Sampson, daughter of Elijah & Ruth (Bradford) Sampson, born at Duxbury on 18 Oct 1762 and died there 16 Sep 1843. William Soule served in the American Revolution for 11-days having marched as a private in Capt. Bildad Arnold's company of Col. Thomas Lothrop's Plymouth County regiment to Rhode Island in the alarm of 10 Dec 1776 (Massachusetts Soldiers & Sailors of the Revolution 14:649). While most sources give his name as plain William, the death certificate of his son Thomas (MassVR 175:307) names his parents as "William J. Soule and Priscilla Sampson". We do not know what this initial may stand for nor are we certain that it is correctly included. Priscilla (Sampson) Soule is a Mayflower Descendant in her own right being 6th in descent from Governor William Bradford of the Mayflower through her mother, 7th from Elder William Brewster, 7th from Thomas Rogers, 6th from John Alden on one line and 7th in another; through her father directly 5th from Henry Sampson and also 6th from Richard Warren in one line and 9th in another from Warren. Children of this William & Priscilla (Sampson) Soule, primarily from William Soule's own bible of record in NSDAR Lineage Papers (Nos. 82558, 82588 and 370140) but verified from DuxburyVRs, census returns and other sources (all born Duxbury) were:

- | | | | | |

14. Simeon⁵ Soule (Nathan⁴, Joshua³, John², George¹) was born at Duxbury, Plymouth County, Massachusetts on 10 Dec 1751 and was baptized there on 30 Sep 1759 and died at Duxbury on 21 Dec 1831. He was married first at Duxbury on 29 Dec 1776 to Jane Weston, daughter of Thomas & Mary (Southworth) Weston, who was born, perhaps at Duxbury about 1757 or 1758 as she died at Duxbury on 19 Oct 1800 in her 43rd year. He was married for the second time at Duxbury on 1 Dec 1803 to Asenath Brewster, daughter of Joseph & Deborah (Hunt) Brewster, born at Duxbury on 8 Mar 1778 and died there 25 Feb 1865. Simeon Soule served in the American Revolution having first marched on the alarm of 19 Apr 1775 as a private in Captain Benjamin Wadsworth's (2nd Duxbury) company of militia of Colonel James Warren's (Plymouth County) regiment with credit for 3-days service; also served for another 15-days as a private in Lieutenant (later Captain) Nathan Samson's company of Colonel Thomas Lothrop's regiment on the alarm to Bristol, Rhode Island of 10 Dec 1776 (Massachusetts Soldiers & Sailors of the Revolution 14:642 and Asenath (Brewster) Soule's application for bounty lands under the Act of 3 Mar 1855, said application being dated Duxbury 2 Aug 1855 and giving her age as 75.). Asenath Brewster is a direct lineal descendant through her father in the 6th Generation from Elder William Brewster, also in the 7th Generation from Edward Doty and William White. The children of Simeon & Jan (Weston) Soule, all born at Duxbury, were:

- | | | | | |

The only child of Simeon and second wife Asenath (Brewster) Soule, also born at Duxbury, was:

- | | | | | |

| | xii. | Charles | b. 18 May 1806 | (33837) |

15. Daniel⁶ Soule (Nathaniel⁵, Abishai⁴, Josiah³, John², George¹) was born at Duxbury, Plymouth County, Massachusetts on 19 Oct 1796 and was apparently "lost at sea" about the mid-1820s, married at Duxbury on 8 Dec 1822 to Deborah W. Kent (whose parentage and place of birth have not been established by us) who was born about 11 Sep 1800 and died at Duxbury on 24 Apr 1862 aged 61 years 7 months and 13 days. Their only child, born at Duxbury, was:

- | | | | | |
|-----|----|--|----------------|----------|
| 26. | i. | Daniel Lucius⁷ Soule | b. 23 Nov 1824 | (323421) |

16. Enoch⁶ Soule (Nathaniel⁵, Abishai⁴, Josiah³, John², George¹) was born at Duxbury, Plymouth County, Massachusetts on 20 Mar 1814 and died there 28 Jan 1888 aged 73 years 10 months and 8 days (MassVR 392:350) married for the first time at Boston, Suffolk County, Massachusetts on 3 Oct 1861 (MassVR 145:239, 149:90 and Duxbury Town Records) to Zilpha S. Hunt, daughter of Samuel jr & Huldah (Delano) Hunt, who was born at Duxbury on 7 Feb 1828 and died there 8 Mar 1901 aged 73 years and 19 days. Enoch Soule was a fisherman and mariner but late in life took up farming. Their only child, born in Duxbury, was:

- | | | | | |
|--|----|-------------------------------|----------------|----------|
| | i. | John⁷ Soule | b. 14 Jan 1864 | (3234X1) |
|--|----|-------------------------------|----------------|----------|

17. Micah⁶ Soule (Josiah⁵, Micah⁴, Josiah³, John², George¹) was born at Duxbury, Plymouth County, Massachusetts probably about 1783 or 1784 as he was baptized there 13 Jun 1784 and died, perhaps at sea, about 1821 or 1822 as widow Lucy Soule was appointed Administrator for his estate in 1822 (Probate Case #18843) - Plymouth County Registry). He was married at Duxbury in Aug 1806 to Lucy Alden, possibly but by no means certainly she may have been the daughter of Isaiah & Mercy (Weston) Alden, neither have we established the date and place of her birth or her death. There was an unidentified Lucy Soule enumerated as "SOUL" at Duxbury in the 1840 Census aged 50 to 60 with a son (?) (male) aged 15 to 20; not found in the 1850 Census returns. Winsor's Duxbury (page 313) mentions children of this family as Micah who married Sarah Wadsworth, Sarah and Lucy. From this, and the death certificate of Micah A. Soule (MassVR 329:305) we conclude that their children, all born at Duxbury, were possibly as follows:

- | | | |
|----------|-------------------------|---|
| i. | Lucy ⁷ Soule | b. - ? -; d. young |
| ii. | Sarah | b. ca 1809; d. 2 Mar 1840 aged 31 (Duxbury VRs) |
| 27. iii. | Micah A. (Alden?) | b. 3 Aug 181 (324213) |

18. Samuel⁶ Soule (Josiah⁵, Micah⁴, Josiah³, John², George¹) was born at Duxbury, Plymouth County, Massachusetts on 1 Mar 1786 and is reported (DAC #488 Vol. 1-1929) to have died in 1863, place not stated. We do not find his death recorded in either the Duxbury Town Records or in the Massachusetts Vital Records, nor do we find either a will or other probate action concerning him in the Plymouth County Probate Registry. He was first married at Duxbury on 28 Jan 1807 to Ruth Partridge, daughter of Colonel Calvin & Mary (Alden) Partridge, who was born at Duxbury on 8 Aug 1790 and died there 18 or 22 Nov 1811 aged 21 years 3 months and 10 days. He was married second at Duxbury on 18 Apr 1814 to Hannah Partridge, also daughter of Calvin & Mary (Alden) Partridge and sister to his first wife, who was born at Duxbury on 12 Dec 1792 and died there of consumption on 23 Jul 1838. He was again married at Duxbury on 4 Dec 1842 to Lydia Chandler, probably Lydia Darling Chandler, daughter of Peleg & Mercy (Darling) Chandler, who was born at Duxbury 4 Sep 1811. We have not been able to ascertain the date or place of her death. Samuel⁶ Soule was a mariner living alone at Duxbury in 1840 and again in 1850 Census return. There was only one child, born at Duxbury, of Samuel & Ruth (Partridge) Soule:

- | | | |
|----|--------------------------|--------------------------------|
| i. | Alice ⁷ Soule | b. 28 Oct 1809; d. 21 Mar 1810 |
|----|--------------------------|--------------------------------|

The children of Samuel & Hannah (Partridge) Soule, all born at Duxbury, were:

- | | | |
|-----------|------------------|---------------------------------------|
| ii. | Asa | b. 25 Mar 1817; d. 14 Feb 1839 Unmar. |
| iii. | Hannah | b. 1818; d. 22 Aug 1826 Unmar. |
| iv. | Samuel jr | b. 29 Jul 1820; d. 12 Oct 1823 Unmar |
| v. | Horatio Sprague | b. 3 Mar 1823 (324225) |
| vi. | Abishai | b. 2 Nov 1825 (324226) |
| vii. | Hannah K. | b. 4 May 1828; d. 22 Aug 1836 Unmar. |
| 28. viii. | Samuel Partridge | b. 13 Jan 1832 (324227) |

There were apparently no children born by the third wife of this man.

19. James⁶ Soule (James⁵, Joseph⁴, Joshua³, John², George¹) was born at Duxbury, Plymouth County, Massachusetts on 22 Apr 1782 and died there on 7 May 1869 aged 84 years 7 months and 17 days. He married at Duxbury on 9 Oct 1820 to Mary Bradford, daughter of William & Lucy (Sampson) Bradford, who was born at Duxbury on 7 Sep 1789 and died there on 10 Nov 1869. Their children, all born at Duxbury, were:

- | | | |
|--------|-----------------------------|--------------------------------------|
| 29. i. | James O. ⁷ Soule | b. 26 Jul 1821 (337461) |

| vi. | Benjamin True | b. 24 Jun 1832 | (337466) |

20. Charles⁶ Soule (Ezekiel⁵, Joseph⁴, Joshua³, John², George¹) was born at Duxbury, Plymouth County, Massachusetts on 22 Apr 1782 and died there on 19 Oct 1868 aged 86 years and 6 month. He married first at Duxbury on 25 Jun 1809 to Mercy Sprague, daughter of Hon. Seth & Deborah (Sampson) Sprague, who was born at Duxbury on 25 Dec 1789 and died there 16 Dec 1846. He married second at Duxbury on 19 Dec 1847 to Mary B. Alexander, widowed daughter of Thomas & Joanna (- ? -) Savary, who was born at Plymouth, Plymouth County, Massachusetts in or about 1814 and died (place not ascertained) after 19 Oct 1868 (MassVR 212:302 indicates that Charles was married when he died) but she is not found in the 1870 Census of Duxbury nor do we find any record or her remarriage or death in Massachusetts. The children of Charles & Mercy (Sprague) Soule (none by second wife), all born at Duxbury, were:

- | | | | |
|----------|-----------------------------|--------------------------------|----------|
| i. | Isabella ⁷ Soule | b. 23 Mar 1810 | (337631) |

| xiii. | Mercy Sprague | b. 9 May 1835 | (33763C) |

NOTE: We have not given this man credit for service in the War of 1812 since his application for Bounty Land dated Duxbury 9 Feb 1852 was denied on the grounds that the Pension Bureau Auditor could find no record of service rolls for the organization in question. The application gave his age as 67 at the time of the submission and claimed he volunteered for and served as a private in the "Sea Fencibles" in company commanded by Captain Gershom Bradford, said service having begun at Duxbury in mid-June 1813 and continued to the "close of the war".

20½. Otis⁶ Soule (Ezekiel⁵, Joseph⁴, Joshua³, John², George¹) was born at Duxbury, Plymouth County, Massachusetts on 11 Feb 1787 and died at City Point, Virginia in Sep 1821, married at Duxbury on 5 Feb 1815 to Salumith Weston Sampson, daughter of Captain Sylvanus & Sylvia (Church) (Weston) Sampson who was born at Duxbury on 25 Nov 1793 and died there in 1901 (Plymouth County Probate Case No. 11, 912, not found in Mas VRs). Otis Soule served in the Sea Fencibles during the War of 1812 having volunteered at Duxbury in June 1813 and being discharged there at "the close of the war" according to the affidavit of the widow on 9 Feb 1852 when she was aged 58. She claimed and was granted Bounty Land for this service as a private under Captain Gershom Bradford and Lieutenant Prince Bradford. Her affidavit also stated that Otis' brother Samuel had served with him in the same organization. Note the inconsistency between this record and the same one immediately preceding! The "Columbian Centinel" for 6 Oct 1821 states that Captain Otis

Soule of the Brig ROMULUS of Duxbury had died "near Richmond, Virginia". Their two daughters, both born at Duxbury, were:

He was a master mariner and usually referred to in the records as "Captain" Stephen Soule. Their children, all born at Duxbury, were:

22. Thomas J.⁶ Soule (William J.⁵, Joseph⁴, Joshua³, John², George¹) was born at Duxbury, Plymouth County, Massachusetts on 27 May 1795 and died there 19 Dec 1864. He was married first at Kingston, Plymouth County, Massachusetts on 13 Jan 1828 to Judith Holmes, daughter of Spencer & Judith (McLaughlin) Holmes, who was born at Plympton, Plymouth County, Massachusetts on 4 Oct 1807 and died at Duxbury on 11 May 1830. FRONT COVER PHOTOGRAPH

The following is an explanation of the family shown in the picture on the front cover. Thanks to Eugene Buchholz for the photograph and the information. We encourage any of you with similar, "dated" pictures, i.e., very early 1900s and earlier, and accompanying family information to send them to the editor for possible inclusion in the Newsletter.

Mr. Chuck Healy
810 Mariner's Point Dr.
Creve Coeur, MO 63141

Dear Mr. Healy,

The original of the enclosed photo was taken at the H.N. Richardson photo shop in Stevens Point, Wis before 1890. Please see obverse for identification of the people photographed. Hem (NOT HERMAN) Soule's lineage back to George is George-1, George-2, William-3, George-4, Benjamin-5, Issac-6, DeAlanson-7, Solomon-8, Heman-9. Heman and Emma Soule are my wife's great-grandparents through their daughter Edith who married William Gustin.

I am hoping that you might find an appropriate spot in a future Soule Newsletter to publish this photo.

Emma Soule has an interesting genealogy herself. Her great-grandfather was Heinrich Ludwig Achilles who was a Hessian mercenary who fought in the Revolutionary War on the side of the British, was captured by Americans at the battle of Bennington, switched sides and fought for the USA. He had a wife and family in Braunschweig, Germany but elected to remain in this country. He married and lived in New Hampshire. His children moved to Canada and later generations moved to Wisconsin.

I have dates and other information about these people. If you or others are interested please let me know and I will try to oblige you or them.

My e-mail address in the latest Soule news letter is not correct. Someone added a 't'. It should be buchholz@powerweb.net.

Some dates you may wish to have:

Heman Soule: Born Aug. 8, 1850, in Middleburg, Ohio. Died Oct 30, 1900 in Lone Pine, WI Married Sept 14, 1874 to Emma Achilles of Lone Pine, WI.

Marriage records

The following is a slew of marriage records from various states and time frames. They were sent to the SOULE-L@rootsweb.com internet site over a period of weeks back in December 1998 by Marilyn Eva (Hershele@aol.com) and Lynde Stewart (MainFlor@aol.com). Many thanks to both Marilyn and Lynde for this valuable family history information! I believe that some of the information came from Family Treemaker's online reference library and some from CD#213 from the Family History Library in Salt Lake City, UT. If you have interest in a particular piece of information, I suggest you contact Marilyn or Lynde directly for precise reference information.

For the sake of space, I have reformatted the text somewhat from what was in the original e-mail messages, however, the spelling and dates are as they were originally presented. I have not tried to alphabetize the information whatsoever.

E-Mail

You will note that I have included in this month's Soule Newsletter only the subject and who from lines for the e-mail messages that have been posted over the past several months. Had I included all of the text from these messages, the Newsletter would be in excess of 150 pages this month alone. While I dislike having to leave out all of the valuable information, I felt I had no alternative.

By including the "who from" line for these messages, I hope that if a particular subject piques your interest, you will make the effort to contact the author of the message for the information they provided.

Also, please note the following letter I received from our Newsletter indexer, Jim Schlosser. His point is well taken that, had we continued the practice of listing the full contents of all of the e-mail messages, he could easily have made three careers of trying to keep up with it all. That is, of course, unfair to Jim. Here is his note, followed by the email postings.

April 25, 1999

Dear Chuck –

You are doing too good a job! The internet genealogical information is fantastic for those doing research. However, I have started on the newsletter index and there is a problem. Normally, we have had an "every name" index, although a few names in newspaper articles may be omitted because they are really irrelevant. All the names traditionally are included in the presumption that they may someday, somehow help someone trace an ancestor or whatever. Also, I suspect members like to see their names listed.

However, the January issue quickly indicated overload and the April issue confirms it. I did do part of January and scanned other pages for a name count. It appears that we would have 2500 to 2700 names in the one issue. At 110 names per page [2 columns] that would take more than 25 pages only for #1, with three newsletters to go.

Members have the full list available by reading the newsletter without referring to an index, although it obviously could be useful.

As a practical alternative could we have a typical index of names in articles. Then a "Genealogical Index" in which we would have headings of internet genealogy information. I am not a genealogist but could probably work off subject headings with an explanation that there are numerous names of spouses, children, ancestors or descendants associated with each listed as in the index. I.e.

- Sowles/Adams VT p 18
- Soule/Darbee NY p 18
- Libby/Green Family in America p 19-22
- Cornish - DAR - records p 22
- Soule James/William - DAR Records - 22
- Soule, Constant - DAR Records p 22
- Etc.

This would probably require a listing with only one column on a page rather than two columns. It does get rather complicated in making selections and question whether it is a good situation. That again would take considerable space for an index that is of very limited interest to members who have their lineage and don't care. Many others are interested in research, but they probably check the newsletter for helpful information. Let me know what you think.

SOULE KINDRED NEWSLETTER, VOL. XXXIII, NO. 3 JULY, 1999

Somewhat slow in getting to this. We are moving back to the Milwaukee area and are involved in buying a house[we just did that] and selling a house, which will not be an easy task in Tomah. Also sorting, discarding or packing what we have accumulated in more than 50 years.

[Signed] Jim

From: Teri.Barnett@LSSWT.com (Barnett, Teri)

Does anyone know if George Soule Born 1834 in Barrington, New York (and founder of Soule College in New Orleans) is a direct descendant of the George Soule who came over on the Mayflower? Is the name merely coincidental?

Thanks!

Hi Becky

This is just a shot in the dark, but I am trying to determine the marriage date and place of my grand parents Russel V. Soule and Henrietta J. Latour.

Russel was born in Washington, Macomb County,MI on 9/30/1898 to Benjamin H. Soule and Maud Dunlap.

Benjamin and Maud had 5 children: Alice, Anna, Mildred and Bernard Arthur.

Is there any chance we are related? And that you have come across the marriage of my grandparents in your search?

Looking forward to hearing from you.

Looking for other descendants/information of Dwight SOULE, b. 1797 in Fairfax, Vt. And died in Hardin County, Ohio in 1875. Dwight was the son of Isaac Newton SOULE and Rhoda MERRILL of Fairfax, Vt. He first married Rhoda BEEMAN in Vermont and later married Rachel DeMOSS in Knox Co., Ohio in 1837. Ridlon lists Dwight as Isaac Newton SOULE'S son and states that he "went early to the West".

I received a note from a nice lady who reads the Soule Kindred Newsletter but is not on the internet. Her name is Charlotte McShea. She asked me to post information in answer to a query sent on 12/30/1998 by Ellen Sneed which was posted in the Newsletter. Here is the original query and the answer is below.

In the Mayflower Families in Progress book of George Soule and His Descendants (pink book), it states that Mary Soule, daughter of Josiah Soule, born Dec. 5, 1706 never married and had no children.

In the source you quoted, it stated that Mary Soule was married to Joshua Cushman. Now I'm confused.

Ellen (Soule) Sneed

Joseph and Josiah Soule were twins and they both had a daughter named Mary. It is Joseph's daughter Mary that married Joshua Cushman.

Hi.

I am trying to find information (to begin with) on my great grandfather. His name was Will Smith Soule. His son (my grandpa) was Roy Derwood Soule (1/4/04 - 3/11/74). I believe Will married Maude L. Lewis. I believe births and marriages took place in Idaho.

Any help will be great. Thanks

Subj: Esther Nash or Esther Delano?
From: forrest@whidbey.com (Robert Forrest)

Hello, Soule-L rooters. A recent note to the group from Marily Eva brought up the uncertainty over John Soule's wife: Esther Nash or Esther Delano. I thought this had now been settled as Esther Delano, but I've forgotten all the reasoning. I remember thinking the birth dates fit better for Delano, and that recent findings for relationships within the Sampson family had impacted the way in which a will should be interpreted. Further, I had thought general opinion had come full circle on this: originally Esther Delano was the prevailing opinion, then for a while it became Esther Nash, but now opinion has swung back to Esther Delano. Randy Robinson (rrobins@flinthills.com) was of this opinion and in an email to me he quoted several relatively recent TAG articles to support his position. A summary of his position: "My feeling is Esther, wife of Samuel Sampson and John Soule, is Esther Delano. There has been a lot of controversy over this during this century. First she was generally accepted as Esther Delano. Then someone misinterpreted the will of Samuel Nash and she became a dau of Samuel Nash. Recently, Robert S. Wakefield listed her as Esther [Delano?] in TAG 63:209 on Abraham Sampson."

Stratton, in his "Plymouth Colony and Its People," 1986 referred to the way Clarence Almon Torrey, 'A Nash - Sampson - Delano - Howland Problem,' TAG 15:165, used the will of Samuel Nash dated 2 June 1681 and other information to show that Samuel Sampson, the deceased grandson of Lt. Samuel Nash [also the first husband of the woman who married (2) John Soule] was a son of Abraham Sampson of Duxbury, and that it was Abraham Sampson who married a daughter of Samuel Nash. [In other words, if there was a Hester or Esther Nash, she was Samuel Sampson's mother, not his wife.]

Is there a currently established position on this matter? Has there been some recent will or other record discovered which can resolve this question one way or the other? If not, it would be helpful to have the primary sources from which we could each draw our own conclusions. Even a neophyte like me has heard of several instances where researchers have misread a will, or not read the will in its entirety, and so drawn an incorrect conclusion of relationships which was then set forth in the family history. How about some input from the rest of you descendants of John Soule on this?

Bob Forrest (forrest@whidbey.com)

Hi Robert and All

Opinions and thoughts. Some woman named Ester or Hester married John Soule around 300 years ago. They had children Thank God or we wouldn't be here ourselves. Who she was may or may not ever be proven. It is one of the mysteries of life. Enjoy what we have and let go of the mimutia. It is a small thing.

Have a good day!

Perhaps we should put both names in our records until proof is found. I've always had Esther Nash because that is the name in the book from the Mayflower Society. We may never know which one it is.

FANNIE SOULES

The following information on Fannie Soule was received from Willis Brown on 15 April, 1999. If anyone has information on Fannie or the family as discussed, please contact Willis directly.

Fannie Soules

15 April 1999

As always, I read the latest copy of the Soule Newsletter hoping for some mention of our Fannie Soules. As usual, there was nothing. But this time I did find an article of interest and that is the location of the upcoming Annual Meeting in Lanark, Illinois. The article describes the activities for 12 August as including a "Group Bus Tour -----our bus will follow the Indian Trail down the Rock River, stopping at a grove north of Oregon, Il.", and then continues with descriptions of points of interest in the area.

There is another point of interest at Oregon, Illinois and that is the Civil War Statue located near the county court house. The statue is one of the few which depict a female figure, and in the reverse side, in the listing of members of Company D, 142nd Illinois Volunteer Infantry, is the name of John Ayers. That John Ayers is also the husband of Fannie Soules.

My efforts to prove the lineage of Fannie Soules have not been successful. I have found that Fannie Elizabeth Soules was born on 7 February 1853 in New York. She married John R. Ayres in Carroll County, Illinois on 8 April 1868. Fannie died 6 September 1933 at Valentine, Nebraska. The obituary for Fannie (Soules) Ayers records that she was survived by a brother Velia Soules, thus proving the relationship to Jonathon, husband of Catherine Vellie or Velie.

Family tradition claims that Jonathon Sowles was born C1815 in NY. He married Catherine Velie and fathered seven children at West Junius, New York. Those children were:

- (1) George, born 1837, d. 1842, West Junius, Seneca Co., New York
- (2) Mary Frances, b. 1839, d. 1840, West Junius, New York
- (3) Joseph, b. 1839, West Junius, New York, d. 1909 at ?.
- (4) William Henry, b. 1843, d. 1848, West Junius, New York.
- (5) Velie, b. 1845, West Junius, New York, d. 1934(?), Perry, Iowa(?).
- (6) Mary Esther, born 1845, d. 1853, West Junius New York.
- (7) Lucy Ann, b. 1849, d. 1853, West Junius New York.

Catherine (Vellie) Sowles died 6 April 1851 at West Junius, New York.

Jonathon Sowles married (second) Deborah Graham, widow of Anson Graham who was a minister in Junius, NY. The death of Anson Graham and Catherine (Velie) Soules were close together in time and were caused by the same unidentified illness, which was epidemic at the time.

Jonathon and Deborah had three children. Those children were:

(8) Fannie, born in 1853, at West Junius, New York, married John R. Ayers, died in 1933 at Valentine, Nebraska.

(9) Anson, born in 1855 in Carroll Co., Illinois, married Margaret Shoemaker, died in 1930, in Buchanan Co., Iowa. Anson had a well developed interest in his ancestors and provided his descendants with that ancestry. My use of family tradition in this note is the work accomplished by Anson.

(10) James, born in 1857 in Carroll Co., Illinois, died 1897(?), in Iowa(?).

Jonathon Sowles died in April 1859 in Carroll County, Illinois. Burial was in the Bethel Cemetery, South Otter Creek Dr., Wysox TWP, Carroll County, Illinois. His grave is marked, however, the burials are listed in a County Cemetery index. Family tradition says that Joseph is the father of Jonathon, that they left West Julius, New York, together in 1854, and arrived in Carroll County that same year.

Famliy tradition also claims that the father of Joseph was Jonathan Sowle, who was born 24 February 1740 at Dartmouth Mass. Jonathan and his wife Bathsheba Russell are listed as number 569 of "George Soule of the Mayflower and His Descendants for Five Generations". The father of Jonathan, husband to Bathsheba was also named Jonathan, and is number 129 in the current book,

"George Soule of the Mayflower and His descendants for Four Generations". Also listed in the five generations version of the book is Joseph, b. ca 1788 in Clinton New York. Family tradition provides a name of Esther Palmer for his wife.

Joseph died in 1858 in Carroll County, Illinois. His age of 71 years is in agreement with the birth date of CA 1788 as recorded for the son of Jonathan and Bathsheba Soule.

Only family tradition records our Joseph as the son of Jonathan and Bathsheba (Russell) Sowles. It is that same tradition that identifies him as the father of Jonathon Sowles. Burial was in The Bethel Cemetery, South Otter Creek Dr., Wysox TWP, Carroll, County, Illinois. His grave is adjacent to that of Jonathon Sowles. It seems to be reasonable that father and son traveled together and that they were buried in adjacent graves.

Illinois vital records do not include death certificates for Jonathan or Joseph Soules. No obituaries or other written records have been found. Although the two names are listed in the 1850 U. S. census for New York, those records do not confirm the relationship to each other or to the men with the same name later found in Illinois. I have not found marriage records in New York or death records of the spouses involved.

The names of Joseph Soule and Jonathan Soule are shown in the index for the 1850 U. S. Census for New York in Junius, Seneca County. As tradition records it, they left New York in 1854. Both men were dead before 1860. However, the 1860 Census for Illinois at Milledgeville, in Carroll County, records "Debra Sole" as the head of a household with Fanny, Anso, and James. The same census shows Joseph and Velia with the name of Sowles, in the household of Stephen D. Crouch. Nothing was found for Debra after the 1850 census.

Do you have anything in your files or any words of wisdom which might help me in the search for the lineage of Fannie Soules Ayers?

With a little bit of laughter
With a little bit of song
Broken hearts are mended
Heartstring ties made strong.

With a little bit of blarney
With a pleasing bit of wit
Troubled hours become happy hours.
You surely must admit.
